CANVASS FOR GOVERNOR.

A Careful Estimate of the Vote for the Several Candidates.

WHO WILL BE THE NOMINEE

Attorney General Elkin Has Been Fortunate the Past Week, But His Pace is Not Fast Enough.

185 DELEGATES YET TO BE ELECTED

Attorney General Elkin has been exceptionally fortunate in the delegate elections of the past week, and the pace at which he is traveling is something of a surprise to those who had supposed his campaign would go to pieces as soon as Senator Quay and Mr. Durham declared against his nomination. But the pace is not fast enough, even if it can be maintained, to enable him to win.

Including the elections in the five counties of Crawford, Dauphin, Erie, Monroe and Northumberland on Saturday, 173 delegates to the State convention have been chosen. This is six less than one-half the whole number, leaving 185 yet to elect.

The division of those elected given as impartially as possible on the best obtainable information is: Elkin, 85; Pennypacker, 19, Watres, 14; uninstructed, 53, and in dispute the two from the First Luzerne district. In this statement Mr. Elkin is given all the delegates instructed for him and all who are known to have declared for him, including those of Lancaster, McKean and Mercer, which were not instructed by any county convention. In the case of the former two counties the delegates are committed to Mr. Elkin by their own action, which they can undo at any time, in the case of Mercer county the instructions came from the county committee several weeks after the delegates were chosen.

From these figures, which we believe to be as nearly accurate as it is possible to make them at this stage of the canvass, it will be seen that Mr. Elkin must secure ninety-five more delegates out of the 185 yet to be elected in order to secure a bare majority of the convention. To put it in another way, he must elect every delegate but four left to be chosen outside of Philadelphia, unless he can pick up some of those from the uninstructed list. There is not much margin there.

The uninstructed counties are: Adams, 2; Beaver, 3; Bucks, 5; Carbon, 2, Clinton, 2; Columbia, 1; Crawford, 4; Cumberland, 3; Dauphin, 1 delegate; Erie, 6; Green, 1; Lehigh 5; Lycoming, 4; Pike, 1; Potter, 2; Schuylkill, 3; Snyder, 1; Sullivan, 1; Susquehanna, 3, Venango 3. Erie county may instruct for some candidate at its convention this week, but it is not for Elkin. The delegates from Crawford will be given to any candidate for Governor who will nominate Dr. Flood for Lieutenant Governor, and the Lehigh delegates would probably perform a similar service to secure second place for Mayor Lewis, of Allentown. All the others in the uninstructed list are pretty well declared against Mr. Elkin's nomination.

The counties yet to elect are: Allegheny, 36, Philadelphia, 86; Bedford, 2; Butler, 3; Cambria, 5; Cameron, 1; Centre, 2; Clarion, 2; Elk, 2; Fayette, 5; Fulton, 1; Huntingdon, 2; Mifflin, 1; Montour, 1; Northampton, 5; Perry 2; Somerset, 3; Tioga, 4; Warren, 3; Washington, 5, Westmoreland. 8; York, 6.

The 86 delegates from Philadelphia, it is well understood, will be for Judge Pennypacker, leaving 99 to be elected in 21 other counties. Mr. Elkin will do well if he gets one-half of these, including 25 of the 36 Allegheny delegates, though it is not certain he will get any of them, since a disposition is shown by the Pittsburg Machine to take to the convention uncommitted such delegates as it can control and await developments. Outside of Allegheny it is conceded that Mr. Elkin will get Northampton—unless Chairman Reeder changes front—very likely Westmoreland and possibly Somerset, but not much more.

It looks, therefore, as, if, under the most favorable estimate of his final strength, he would fall from 50 to 70 behind a majority of the convention. It is much easier to foresee this than to predict who will be nominated, though with the solid delegation of Philadelphia supporting him the nomination of Judge Pennypacker seems most probable at this time.—The Press.

A Statement from Overseer Brouse.

BELLEFONTE, PA., May 20th 1902.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE REPUBLICAN:

An article appeared in the last issue of the Gazette showing roughly a statement of the receipts and disbursements of the overseers of the poor in a way that tends to mislead and confuse the tax-payer. The "citizen," who signs the article, would have been better acquainted with the facts had he spent "a few moments" more in studying the statement.

It is true that I received more money than the tax-collector gave Mr. Diehl. But, outside of mentioning the amount which I had to spend on the Poor House, the article does not show the other comparative expenses. Figuring on the net relief given by both of us, outside of "funeral expenses and extra medical services" and the amount spent on non residents, and taking into account the number of children of those relieved (which is not shown in the statement), the average expenditure per head will be very close, with the figures slightly in my favor.

This is so, notwithstanding the facts that I was forced to spend over four hundred dollars more than Mr. Diehl on extra relief, which, with my amount of cash now on hand, just about equals my cash on hand at the beginning of the year. An examination of the Auditors' Statement will also show that my asylum bills ran nearly three hundred dollars more than his and that, as senior over-seer, I was called upon to pay larger bills for professional services, the bills for extra services and all transportation bills, which together practically amount to the surplus money I received from the collector. Beside these, my expenses on the Poor House amounted to more than the money which Mr. Diehl has on hand.

Over one thousand dollars does seem to be a large sum to spend on the Poor House, but its value can be much better estimated by the man in charge than by an outsider. Had it not been for unforseen circumstances the house could have been kept up for nearly two hundred dollars less.

The public should know that the inmates of the Poor House are the class of people who have to be especially cared for. If we had no Poor House, nurses would have to be employed for each of them and extra medical services would accumulate. In other words they would cost the Poor Department at least one hundred and fifty dollars apiece per year.

Any ex-overseer can readily give many other reasons and many special instances, not suitable to a public article, why the Poor House is a money saver to the Borough.

I do not make this statement to brag of what I have done but simply to show the people that their money has not been misused.

R. S. BROUSE.
Overseer of the Poor.

Death of Prof. J. W. Elliott.

Prof. James W. Elliott, principal of the public schools of Renovo, died at his home in that place Monday at 12:30 p. m., of pneumonia, after an illness of eight days duration. He is a son of the late Rev. James Elliott, of this place, and was born in Reedsville 43 years ago. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Laura Elliott, of this place, and a wife and one daughter, Katherine, aged about 13 years. Also by two brothers, John, of Sherman, Texas, and William, of St. Louis, Mo.

Prof. Elliott had been a resident of Renovo since 1896, when he was elected principal of the schools. He was a candate for superintendent of the schools of Clinton county recently, but was defeated by Prof. Ira N. McCloskey. He was a prominent educator, a member of the Presbyterian church and superintendent of the Sunday school and was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

Funeral services were held at Renovo on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, after which the remains were brought to Bellefonte for interment.

The services were in charge of Rev. Dr. Cooke, of Renovo, assisted by Rev. Dr. Laurie. The casket bearers were Messrs. Niles Johnson, Harry E. Johnson, A. Y. Jones, Dell Cross, John E. Kane, Samuel Gunsberger and Charles A. McGill.

Academy Reception.

The annual reception given by the Academy will take place this year on Friday evening, June 6, from 7:30 to 10:30. Smith's orchestra will furnish the music as usual. All patrons and friends of the Academy and all former students are cordially invited.

A special invitation is hereby extended to the directors, and the teachers of the Bellefonte public schools and to the members of the class of 1902 of the High school, to be present on this occasion.

FOR PENNYPACKER.

General Hastings Believes His Nomination Would Unite All Factions.

SO STATES IN AN INTERVIEW

Which was Published in the Philadelphia Press of Tuesday May 13- Is Well Acquainted With Judge Pennypacker.

WELL FITTED TO BE GOVERNOR

The following interview with General Hastings appeared in the Philadelphia Press last week:

BELLEFONTE, Pa., May 12.—Former Governor Daniel H. Hastings is a supporter of Judge Pennypacker for the nomination for Governor. When questioned on the subject ex-Governor Hastings said:—

"I know Judge Pennypacker well. He is a man of high character, intelligence and culture, a devoted Pennsylvanian and in every way fitted to be Governor of the Commonwealth.

"The records of the last sessions of the Legislature and of the present Administration at Harrisburg, which cannot be separated, make it impossible for the Republican party in its State convention to indorse either without inviting defeat at the hands of the people, costing the party control of State affairs, and much more serious, the loss of a number of congressional districts, which may be needed if the Republicans are to be made secure in their majority in the lower house of the next Congress. The nomination of Mr. Elkins could be accepted only as an indorsement of a record which the party cannot afford. It would intensify the factional differences, which all sincere Republicans want to get rid of, and the result would be most unfortunate.

"The place to settle factional differences is within the party by such nominations and such party action as are acceptable to all. Judge Pennypacker, I am confident, represents in character and fitness what is demanded at this time. He would be a candidate on whom every factional element in the party could unite and his nomination would remove the reasons for opposition which have so frequently existed. The Pennypacker name is one with an honorable record in the annals of Pennsylvania and Judge Pennypacker is too proud of it himself, and too high minded, to permit it to be smirched by any act of his. I am sure with such a man in the chief executive's office of the Commonwealth there would be no approval of such legislation as ripper charters and franchise grabs.

"I should regard the nomination of Judge Pennypacker," said ex-Governor Hastings in conclusion. "As a happy solution of present party difficulties in the State, as assuring substantial party harmony and deserving a victory at the polls up to the best record of the past."

Colonel Wilbur F. Reeder, the chairman of the Republican Committee of Centre County, was as decisive as ex-Governor Hastings in declaring himself in favor of Judge Pennypacker, predicting the best results from such a nomination.

Alumni Banquet and Reception.

The High School Alumni Committee met on Thursday evening and made the final arrangements for the reception and banquet which will be tendered the graduates in the Class of 1902.

The reception will begin about 8:30 and last for about an hour and a half when refreshments will be served by caterer Charles Harrison. After which those who wish to trip the light fantastic can do so. The music for this occasion will be furnished by Christy Smiths famous orchestra. The committee have knowledge of one hundred and eighty graduates of the High School living and have had personal interviews with one hundred and thirty, and they think by the time of the reception, that they will hear from all. This reception, banquet and ball promises to be one of the grandest social events of the season and those who received invitations can congratulate themselves on being so lucky.

BULLOCK—SMITH.

A Pretty Wedding Event Which Occurred Tuesday Evening at Unionville.

The home of J. C. Smith in Unionville was the scene of a beautiful ceremony Tuesday, May 20, when that gentleman's daughter, Clara became the wife of George Bullock of Julian.

The interior of the house was tastefully decorated with evergreens, and a gate representing "life everlasting," hung in the folding doors, through which the bridal party passed to reach the altar of laurels and greens.

Promptly at 11 o'clock the bride with her attendants descended the stairs to the strains of the wedding march which was rendered by Miss Wagner, the handsome little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner, of Unionville. The bridal party was preceded by the Misses Bullock's sisters of the groom as flower girls who opened the gate of the parlor when the bridal party approached. The bridesmaids were the Misses Rich, Miss Susie Stover and Miss Lucas. The bride was attired in a dress slightly entrained of Mousseline de soie, trimmed with satin frills. The bridesmaids wore white trimmed in pink and blue. The flower girls costumes were of like material. At the gates the bride was met by the groom and together they advanced between the isles of "life everlasting" which was held by Master Don McEwen and Miss Elizabeth Musser to the centre where the two were made man and wife by Rev. J. T. Tallheim of Julian. After a bountiful repast the happy pair left on a special train for an extended trip to the lakes.

The guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bullock, father and mother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Roll Swisser, Mr. and Mrs. Aust Swisser, of Julian. Other guests from Harrisburg, Philipsburg, Bellefonte and Lock Haven were present.

The kind feelings of all toward the happy couple were shown by the numerous and useful presents of which they were the recipients.

Fed Small Pox to Guests.

The spread of small pox in Mt. Carmel and to surrounding towns has been the cause of much comment and conjecture, says the Shamokin News:

In conversation with a Mt. Carmelite, a representative of the press learned that there is intense feeling against Dr. Davis, who is at present in the pest house suffering from the disease. It is alleged that he was aware of the fact that Byerly, the tramp, was stricken and that he gave him a dollar in order that he could leave Mt. Carmel, this causes the feeling against the physician. Since the outbreak there have been several cases reported from Mahantongo and these were undoubtedly contracted at Mt. Carmel as the farmers attended market at that place. When the hospital authorities advertised for a cook, the women who acted in that capacity at the Locust Mountain House, offered her services and was accepted. While preparing a meal for the inmates she rolled up her sleeves and the nurse noticed that she had smallpox marks on her arm and upon examination found the cook to be recovering from a mild attack of the disease. How long she has been a victim is not known but it is likely that she has been feeding smallpox to the patrons of the hotel. Mt Carmelites also threaten to bring suit against several persons, charging them with malevolence and malpractice.

District Conference.

The District conference of the Pittsburg annual conference of the A. M. E. church met in Tyrone Tuesday at 2 o'clock. Bishop Benjamin Arnette, D.D., LL.D., of the third Episcopal district, presided. A reception was held Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock. Rev. R. H. Sumry, of Wilkesbarre, delivered the opening sermon, after which the address of welcome, was made by Hon. E. J. Pruner, burgess, followed by Rev. J. A. Wood Jr., pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church and Rev A. B. Wilson, pastor of the U. B. church, and A. P. Lancaster. Reponsive addresses were made by Rev. D.S. Bentley D.D., of Scranton, Rev. J.W. Jefferies, Pittsburg, Rev. A. J. Askew of Bellefonte. The conference will continue for three days. There will be preaching each evening during the conference.

Memorial Sermon.

The members of the Gregg Post No. 95 G. A. R., are requested to meet at the Post rooms next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock and from there proceed to the Lutheran church where the Memorial sermon will be delivered by Rev. H. C. Holloway D. D., pastor of the Lutheran church. The public is cordially invited to attend this service.

PLOT AGAINST KING.

Anarchists Plan to Take the Life of Spain's New King.

TOWNS DESTROYED BY WIND STORM

Anarchists Pay Respect to Alphonso —Wind Storm Destroyed Property—An Admiral's Will

A PROMINENT REPUBLICAN DEAD

MADRID, May 19.—The discovery of the plot against the king is confirmed by the newspapers here. It is now said that nine dynamite catridges were seized. Further arrests have been made and the prisoners include six medical students, a printer, a carpenter and a mason.

The captured cartridges are being analyzed by military authorities.

According to the newspapers here, the police have had an inkling of an anarchistic plot against the king since last March and in April they discovered an anarchistic meeting place in a fashionable quarter of Madrid.

Three Adalusian anarchists arrived here May 2, and they were arrested soon after their arrival.

After these arrests it was learned that Gabriel Lopez, a doorkeeper for an insurance company situated in the Carrera San Geronima on the route of Friday's royal procession and near the chamber of deputies, had a number of cartridges believed to be dynamite in his possession. He was arrested at 3 o'clock Saturday morning. He is a man of middle age.

Lopez was examined before a magistrate Saturday and declared that the man who gave him the cartridges and told him to throw them as the royal coach passed was Francisco Suarez.

Suarez is notorious for the past he played in an attempted outrage upon the late Castillo seven years ago when he accompanied an anarchist named Ruiz, who intended to explode a bomb in Canovas del Castillo's garden. The bomb exploded prematurely. Ruiz was killed and Suarez was badly injured. He was committed to prison for seven years and has only recently been liberated. Lopez was confronted Friday with Suarez and accused the latter with giving him dynamite cartridges. This Suarez denied and both men are detained.

TEXAS TOWN SWEPT BY STORM.

San Antonio, Texas, May 19.—Shortly after noon Sunday a terrible wind and rain storm swept over San Antonio, damaging property to the extent of not less than $50,000 and possibly $75,000. The wind reached a velocity of seventy-two miles an hour and continued at that rate for nearly twenty minutes.

Houston, Tex., May 19.—A telegram from Superintendent Forbes, of the New York, Texas and Mexican railroad, to General Manager Van Fleck, in this city, says that eight blocks of business houses were blown down at Soliad. Thirty negroes and twenty white people were killed and seventy-five or eighty others injured.

ADMIRAL SAMPSON'S WILL.

Washington, May 19.—The will of the late Rear Admiral William T. Sampson was filed Saturday. It leaves everything to the widow, save $4,000 of life insurance, which is left for equal division among the four daughters. In the petition asking for admission of the will to probate Mrs. Sampson, who is named as sole executor, says the admiral died possessed of stocks and other securities valued at $8,500 and a tract of land at Manchester, N. Y., known as the Morgan Hill farm, valued at $10,000. The will is dated at Key West, Fla., April 16, 1898.

DEAD.

Lancaster, May 19.—John W. Mentzer, aged 68, died Sunday at his home in this city. For many years he was prominent in republican politics and at different times served as jail keeper, prothonotary, street commissioner and councilman.

—Mayor Hoyer of Altoona proposes to put a stop to so much profanity on the streets of that city if it is possible to do so for he has instructed the police to make particular note of the language used on the streets and especially of those who are arrested. In case the person offending in this regard is brought before the mayor a jail sentence is sure to follow. Mayor Hoyer is right, There is no need for men and boys congregating in groups on street corners of any town and befouling the atmosphere with profane and vulgar language to the annoyance of people to whom such conduct is repulsive.

CLASSIS IN SESSION.

Rev. H. I. Crow, of Hublersburg Elected President.

The West Susquehanna classis in annual session at Beaver Springs elected Rev. H. I. Crow, of Hublersburg, president and selected Boalsburg as the next place of meeting.

Classis also decided upon the following: To support a missionary in China; to ask congregations and individuals for voluntary contributions to rebuild the girl's school at Sendai, Japan; and to recommend to the congregations the advisability of supporting native evangelists in China.

Lewistown was enrolled as a member of classis and Rev. E. T. Rhodes was appointed pastor in that place.

Rev. W. J. Johnson was appointed to represent this classis at the Wyoming classis in the effort to have added to this classis the River congregation near Muncy.

Officers Elected For Ensuing Year.

At the Epworth League convention at Philipsburg these officers for the ensuing year were elected at the closing session Friday afternoon: President, R. A. Zentmyer Tyrone; first vice-president, Miss Lizzie Akers, Bellwood; second vice president, Miss Laura Crisseman, Philipsburg; third vice president, Rev. E. R. Heckman, State College; fourth vice president Miss Sallie Kettleberger, Curwensville; recording secretary, J. P. McCurdy, Clearfield; corresponding secretary, Miss Ida Keagy, 214 Sixth avenue, Altoona; treasurer, John Bowman, Hollidaysburg; Junior League superintendent, Mrs. E. S. Latsham, Port Matilda.

Among the addresses delivered during the afternoon was one by the new president on the subject "Our Own Church." Loyalty was the keynote of his address. Shall we have less loyalty than has been given to country? Our church needs us to be loyal to duty, loyal to denominational doctrines, teaching them to the boys and girls and those of larger growth so that they learn to love our own church.

The several sessions of the convention were full of interests, being largely attended by delegates and others throughout the district. Besides the routine and business work of the convention there were some fine addresses delivered. The weather was perfect and everything was favorable for the complete success which the convention proved to be.

Death of Miss Ellie Clemson.

It is with extreme regret that we announce the sad news of the death of Miss Ellie Clemson, which occurred Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock at her home in Baileyville. She had been ill about one month and suffered from a complication of diseases.

Miss Clemson was born at Gatesburg, Centre county, and was 44 years of age. She was a consistent Christian and an earnest member of the Lutheran church and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her.

She is survived by three brothers, namely, Daniel, of East End, Pittsburg; Clark, of Altoona, and Frank H., of Bellefonte.

The funeral services will be held at Baileyville Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment in the Gatesburg cemetery.

Expelled from the Golden Eagles.

Shamokin, May 19.—By more than a two-thirds vote Friday former Grand Master of Records J. D. Barnes was expelled from the Knights of the Golden Eagle on account of alleged irregularities in his accounts. A per capita tax of 50 cents was made, part of which will be used in liquidating the debt on the Golden Eagles' home in Philadelphia. The Grand Temple of Ladies adjourned Friday evening to meet in Johnstown next year.

Uniforms for Engineers.

Another new departure to be taken by the Reading in connection with the inauguration of its hourly express train service between Philadelphia and New York will be the uniforming of the engineers and firemen on those trains. The suit, or uniform consists of overalls and jumper of black duck, with a white stripe, and two caps, one for summer, the other for winter, with the name "Reading" on the front of the crown. The idea, while new in the East, is largely in vogue upon Western roads.

"Every honorable means at our command will be used to win." These words were spoken by President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, just after the vote of the Hazelton convention, to strike. These are safe and prudent words to utter at the beginning of what is likely to be a severe contest between labor and capital. Let us hope that the prudence of this great Labor leader may prove to be an inspiration to all his followers.

"THE BELLEFONTERS"

Home Talent Entertainment A Great Success—A Large Audience Present.

A large audience gathered in Garman's opera house Thursday evening to witness the production of the musical extravaganza entitled "The Bellefonters" as produced by home talent under the personal direction of Charles H. Geesey, of Altoona. The entertainment was a success in every particular and everyone was highly pleased. Mr. Geesey the director deserves the highest praise for the skillful manner in which the performers were trained, the children being especially fine.

The play is given a local coloring from the fact that the scene is laid at Hecla Park where the grandmothers are holding a picnic. The costuming and scenic effects were as fine as was ever witnessed on a Bellefonte stage before. The Bellefonte grandmothers were unusually cute and interesting as were also the grandfathers.

The sailors of the Battleship "Iowa" made quite a hit and Bellefonte's ever popular Co. B, received their usual ovation when they gave their drill under the command of Lieut. P. F. Garbrick.

The banjo girls were quite sweet and winsome and their singing and marching was very captivating. The Red Cross Girls the Roman Soldiers and the British Cavalry were also pretty features well worth going to see.

Don't Start Wrong.

Don't start the summer with a lingering cough or cold. We all know what a "summer cold" is. It's the hardest kind to cure. Often it "hangs on" through the entire season. Take it in hand right now. A few doses of One Minute Cough Cure will set you right. Sure cure for coughs, colds, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung trouble. Absolutely safe. Acts at once. Children like it. "One Minute Cough Cure is the best cough medicine I ever used, "says J. H. Bowles, Groveton, N. H. "I never found anything else that acted so safe and quickly." C. M. Parrish.

Grave Clothes in Trousseau.

Few brides would care to follow a custom traditional in some rural districts of Northumberland, in England.

There, when a woman marries, her grave clothes are considered quite as essential a part of her trousseau as her wedding gown. Safely wrapped away with lavender and all kinds of sweet smelling herbs, they are taken out from time to time and carefully aired and inspected. Indeed, these gruesomely suggestive garments seem to have a special value, for their owner, in moments of gloom and depression, often finds comfort in trying on her shroud and reflecting upon the pleasing effect it will produce when her turn comes to be "viewed" by her mourning neighbors and acquaintances.

Dangerous if Neglected.

Burns, cuts and other wounds often fail to heal properly if neglected and become troublesome sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve prevents such consequences. Even where delay has aggravated the injury DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve effects a cure. "I had a running sore on my leg thirty years," says H. C. Hartly, Yankeetown, Ind. "After using many remedies, I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes healed the sore." Cures all skin diseases. Piles yield to it at once. Beware of counterfeits. C. M. Parrish.

—The two story frame dwelling house owned and occupied by Marshall Berlew, in Eagleville, burned Saturday afternoon. The fire was first seen burning on the roof and as Mr. Berlew had been burning caterpillars off an apple tree, a limb of which hung over the roof, it is regarded as probable that the fire was started from a spark in this way. By the timely assistance of neighbors most of the contents were saved. The loss is covered by insurance.

William Wirt's Reformation.

William Wirt, the great lawyer, attorney general of the United States and prosecutor of Aaron Burr when he was tried for treason, was stupefied and made sensuous by liquor. At times he lost all self control and self respect. On one occasion while drunk he fell in the streets of Richmond. While lying there asleep Miss G., the most beautiful woman in the city, to whom he was betrothed, came along, saw him and placed her handkerchief, on which was her name, over his face. He wakened, saw the name, learned the incident, and it reformed him.—Beverages.

Filbert—Aren't you afraid to be so knowing about poker when your wife is around?

Kilty—Quite the contrary. It is the man who laughs the loudest over a poker joke who knows the least about the game. My wife knows that, and it is my cue to be the man who does the loud laughter.—Boston Transcript.

LOOK LIKE FLATIRONS.

Curious Stone Implements of Our Aborigines Puzzle Scientists.

Among thousands of curious objects of utility, weapons, etc., of the races that peopled North America in prehistoric times that one sees in the cases and cabinets in the Smithsonian institution are some five or more curiously wrought stone objects from mounds in Tennessee bearing such a close resemblance to modern flatirons that many people have thought that such might have been their use among their prehistoric makers, although it would be hard to imagine what the primitive aborigines of this continent had to iron.

The shape and appearance of these objects in every way correspond with a modern flatiron, handle and all, and thus far scientific men have been unable to discover what they were used for. It is, however, just a little singular that wrought stones, similar to the ones from the Tennessee mounds, have been found in Peru among the tombs of the Incas and at the necropolis of Ancon. The old Spanish writers, men who accompanied Pizzaro in the conquest of that country, state that the ancient Peruvians, who were great builders, used these wrought stones, or so called flatirons, as trowels in plastering walls with mortar.

The objects found in one of the Tennessee mounds are the only ones that were ever found in the United States, and the only way to account for their presence in that locality is to suppose that in pre-Columbian times a great deal of Peruvian material reached countries far to the north of the isthmus by means of intertribal trade.—Washington Post.

ACKNOWLEDGED THE CORN

A Popular Expression That Had Its Origin In Congress.

The following is the origin of "I acknowledge the corn," which is used in the sense of admitting failure or having been outwitted: In 1828 Andrew Stewart was in congress discussing the principles of protection and said in the course of his remarks that Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana sent their haystacks, cornfields and fodder to New York and Philadelphia markets to sell.

Charles A. Wyckliffe jumped up and said: "Why, that is absurd, Mr. Speaker. I call the gentleman to order. He is stating an absurdity. We never send haystacks or cornfields to New York or Philadelphia."

"Well, what do you send?" asked Stewart.

"We send," replied Wyckcliffe, "horses, cattle, hogs and mules."

"Well," continued Stewart, "what makes your horses, cattle, hogs and mules? You feed $100 worth of hay to a horse; you get on top of your haystack and ride off to market. How about your cattle? You make every one carry $50 worth of hay or grass to an eastern market. You send a hog worth $10 to market. How much corn at 33 cents a bushel does it take to fatten it? Why, thirty bushels. Then you put thirty bushels of corn into the shape of a hog and make it walk to an eastern market."

Before Stewart could proceed further Wyckliffe arose and said, "Mr. Speaker, I acknowledge the corn."

Scotch Consolation.

A story is told of a canny Scot who dealt in old horses, alternating his spells of labor with heavy sprees. During the period of depression which followed each overindulgence John habitually took to bed and there diligently studied the family Bible. During one of these fits of attempted reformation his condition prompted his wife to call in the Rev. Mr. Wallace, the parish minister, who at the time happened to be passing.

A Poison Without an Antidote.

Some persons are advocating a substitute for death by electricity and hanging. They have advocated poisoning. Well, nothing could be more effective or painless than execution by means of a capsule filled with hydrocyanic acid. It might be served without the knowledge of the convict, and death would be so sudden and so certain that there could be no resurrection. A single drop placed on the tongue of a big dog causes instant death. A half teaspoonful taken by a man will cause him to drop as if struck by lightning. There is no antidote.

Truthful Debtor.

Long—Say, Short, I'd like to have that $10 you borrowed of me three months ago.

Short—Sorry, old man, but I can't give it to you at the present writing.

Long—But you said you wanted it for a little while only.

Short—Well, I gave it to you straight. I didn't keep it half an hour.—Chicago News.

THE BULLET FROM AFAR.

How Modern War Methods Try the Soldiers' Nerves.

Today a man may die as soon as the enemy's guns, hidden away in the distant, cloud topped mountains seven miles away, begin to talk. And over that seven miles he must walk with caution, with a wide interval between him and his pals on either hand. He must lie down at every short halt and scratch the ground hurriedly with his little spade at every long one, for the great shells are sailing toward him, and he sees by his officer's eye and hears by his commands that it is considered that he may perish at any moment and that precautions are necessary to preserve him. He sees, moreover, how futile those precautions must be if one of those monsters howling overhead should land as near to him as the last one did to that blasted tree, for instance, with its scorched, dangling limbs and the huge charred fissure in its stout trunk, or as the one before did to the team of mules in the ambulance wagon, now a screaming, struggling jumble of harness and bloody flesh.

All this is dispiriting and appears unnecessary. The country on all sides is as peaceful as his native dale, not a sign of an enemy. Even the great blue hill ahead, on which he is told the enemy's long guns are posted, looks as quiet as the mountain on a Christmas card. Yet for two miles he walks through death, thinking only of it because there is nothing else to think of, and then as twilight falls bivouacs in extended line, sees his friends run for their tea between the fall of the shells, notices one of them time his run back badly and meet a projectile in full career, to part from it an awful and disgusting offense, and then lies down in the darkness with shaking nerves and the thought that five worse miles still intervene between him and the guns he knows he is intended to take.

Next morning he is awakened by a shell, is marched with infinite caution for two more miles, shelled the whole way, is shelled even in his bivouac by the light of the moon and as he watches the projectiles bursting like waterspouts of fire along his hillside is glad when he is told that tomorrow will be the battle, after which if he wins and if he lives he may be able to walk and sleep in peace for a space.—"A Lineman" in New York World.

The Rose.

At all times the rose has enjoyed peculiar favor as a sacred flower. Mohammedan tradition says that when Saladin captured Jerusalem he refused to enter the shrine of the temple which had been converted into a church by the Crusaders till the walls had been thoroughly cleansed and purified with rosewater. A similar story is told of the Church of St. Sophia, at Constantinople, when transformed from a Christian place of worship to a Mohammedan mosque. The origin of the rose, according to Moslem tradition, is that the blood of the prophet sprang into new life in this glorious crimson flower. To this day when a Turk sees a rose lying on the ground he will raise it tenderly, kiss it reverently and deposit the frail blossom in some place of safety.

Baby's Name.

"But why did you name your baby after his most disreputable ancestor?" the surprised friend asked the proud young mother.

"Well, you see I expect him to improve on the former bearer of the name. Indeed, he hardly can help it, because the ancestor was so very bad. If I had named him after the most distinguished member of the family, he might not have lived up to the name. Babies hardly ever do when they are named for great personages, as I have often noticed."—New York Press.

Foods and Appetite.

In some good advice given in print by a physician the theory held by faddists in special foods, warranted to perform marvels of health and restoration, is exploded. "Don't," says this writer, "imagine that you can grow strong on foods that you dislike. Better fried ham and chocolate cake with a good appetite than a health cereal with milk and disgust."

One would hesitate, perhaps, to follow strictly the fried ham and chocolate cake dictum to the letter, but it is undoubtedly true that at the moment many persons almost starve themselves because they have no appetite for the various so called health foods, which alone they fancy they can eat. Above and beyond the choice of food is moderation in partaking of it and relish for what is eaten.—New York Post.

The East and the West.

A man from the west who was recently visiting Maine fell into conversation with a quiet old farmer on a train. He was full of the greatness of the west and talked about the big farms and big crops of his particular section and wound up by saying, "I suppose you do manage to pick up a living on these little Maine farms."

The old Maine farmer smiled sadly and replied: "Yes, and a few years ago some of us invested money in your section, and it is there yet. It was a permanent investment, I guess."

The western man changed the conversation.—New York Tribune.

A MISERABLE MAN.

Two Years and Six Months Without Sleep.

Sleep seems to be in many cases a matter of habit, just as eating and drinking are habits. The Arab whose desert life leads to abstemiousness, declines the offer of a draught of water, saying, "No thank you, I drank yesterday." He drinks only when thirsty, and like his own camels, he can go long and far without water.

It's much the same with sleep. When Gabet and Huc, the French missionaries, were exploring Tartary they engaged in the translation of the Scriptures, working without intermission day and night. When one felt the need of sleep he lay on a couch, holding in his hand a ball, beneath which, on the floor, was a brazen bowl. When his muscles relaxed sufficiently to release the ball, it fell into the bowl, and the noise wakened the sleeper who resumed his work.

But it is one thing to give up sleep and another thing altogether to be unable to sleep. Those who suffer from asthma, bronchitis and other diseases of the organs of respiration are only too familiar with this enforced wakefulness. They would give almost anything for a night's unbroken rest.

THE SECRET OF SLEEP

for them lies in the cure of the diseases which banish slumber. That this cure is possible is abundantly proven by those who have used Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of bronchitis, obstinate and deep-seated coughs, lung "trouble" and other diseases of the organs of respiration.

"I can this day say that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best and only remedy I have ever found for what the doctors call asthma," writes Mr. F. G. Rodemeyer, of 45 Hayden Street, Fort Wayne, Ind. "I have suffered from hay-fever (and I get the asthma with it), every year in August and September for the last fifteen years, and could not sleep one night during that time, until this year, I have not lost one night's sleep, thanks to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery; and best of all I did not get the asthma with the hay-fever, and I only used two bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery.'"

The cures accomplished by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" are as numerous as they are wonderful. The great triumphs of this medicine have been won in the cure of chronic diseases of many years standing. When every other medicine had failed to do more than give tempory relief, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made a perfect and permanent cure. Even when the disease was far advanced, when there were hemorrhages, night-sweats, emaciation and great weakness, "Golden Medical Discovery" has cured the disease and restored the strength.

WHAT FEW MEN KNOW,

is that catarrh in its commonest or simplest form is a menace not merely to health but to life. Catarrh of the lungs is but a step removed from consumption. Catarrhal affections should therefore never be neglected. They are as dangerous as they are offensive.

"For twelve years I was a sufferer from catarrh and was treated by one of the best physicians in the State of North Carolina, who said the trouble had reached my lungs," writes Mr. J. M. Patton, of Clotho, Transylvania Co., N. C. "I grew worse every day until I tried Dr. Pierce's medicines. Will say, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery with one bottle of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cured me, and to-day I am well and hearty, and I will say further that my former physician, Dr. W. M. Lyday, recommends Dr. Pierce's medicine to me and to others. I am sure your medicines will cure any case of catarrh that exists. I recommend them to all."

By purifying the blood and increasing the activity of the blood-making glands "Golden Medical Discovery" strengthens every organ of the body. Accepting the fact that the blood is the life, it follows that the healthfulness of the physical life will depend upon the healthfulness of the blood, and that a deficient supply of blood must result in a deficiency of physical strength. "Golden Medical Discovery" gives health and strength by increasing the quantity and improving the quality of the blood. The evidence of this lies in the marked gain in weight experienced by those who have become emaciated by wasting disease, and who have been cured by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery." It is not a gain of flabby fat, but a gain of sound flesh and firm muscle, and with this gain of flesh and muscle comes a gain of strength, which seeks a new outlet for itself in active exercise. The frequent testimony, "It has made a new man of me," thoroughly expresses the real rejuvenation which comes to those cured by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." No so-called "just as good" medicine can compare with the "Discovery" when its record of cures is considered.

PLAN DECIDED UPON

Anthracite Mine Workers in Convention Arrive at a Final Conclusion.

MITCHELL GIVES STATEMENT

If Desire of the Strikers Is Carried Out There Will Be a General Suspension in Mining.

NO DISTURBANCES ARE REPORTED

HAZELTON, May 17.—The anthracite mine workers in convention yesterday, in order to win their strike, unanimously decided upon a plan that if carried into successful operation would practically tie up the industries of the country, paralyze business and inconvenience the people throughout the United States. It is their desire that a special national convention of the United Mine Workers of America be called as soon as practicable for the purpose of endeavoring to have all the bituminous mind workers, both organized and unorganized, involved in the anthracite miners' struggle.

This announcement was officially made at noon yesterday by President John Mitchell in a statement giving the result of the deliberations of the delegates in convention. This statement is as follows:

"At Friday morning's session the convention petitioned the national officers to issue a call for a national convention of all miners employed in the United States for the purpose of considering the situation in the anthracite field. If the desire of the anthracite miners is carried into effect a national suspension of coal mining will be inaugurated.

"All questions of detail as to the direction of the strike in the anthracite field were referred to the district and national officers. Definite plans will be outlined within the next few days. For the present the engineers, firemen and pump-runners will continue at work. All mine workers were advised to remain at their homes, abstain from frequenting saloons and under all circumstances observe the law."

An absolutely trustworthy source is authority for the statement that the special committee will be called, probably at Indianapolis, in the course of several weeks. According to the rules of the United Mine Workers, a petition signed by five Mine Workers districts is necessary to call a special convention. The three anthracite districts are unanimous for such a meeting and it is likely that the West Virginia district and the Michigan district will consent to the issuance of the call. The two latter districts now have small but stubborn strikes in progress and they will doubtless consent to the requirements of the call so that they, too, may receive the benefit of whatever may be accomplished.

They will be called out, he said, for the purpose of forcing the mine owners to give them higher wages and incidentally to help the anthracite workers. These men, he went on to say, are partly organized, local unions having been established in all localities in those regions, and he felt confident that the non-union men will respond to the strike call already, as did the anthracite miners in the fall of 1890.

Notwithstanding that 145,000 men have been idle for the last five days, no disturbances of anything have been reported here. The region is extremely quiet. All the delegates left for their homes Friday and Hazelton last night presents a deserted appearance.

—Robert F. Hunter expedites insurance business now by using a motor cycle as a means of transportation. He came to Tyrone from his home at Bellefonte in one hour and forty minutes last evening. The capacity of his machine over the roads of this section is about seventy miles to a single charge of gasoline, which means a run of about four hours. Bob is a hustler as commissary sergeant of the Pennsylvania National Guard division, and may take his machine to Gettysburg in July and utilize spare moments between issues of rations to the guardsmen in camp by "scooting" over the battlefield and taking in the sights.—Wednesday's Tyrone Herald.

A Pythian Pilgrimage.

One of the big movements of history will be that of the Knights of Pythias of the United States in August next, when from all directions they will advance on San Francisco and California.

The National Convention of the Order, which is held every two years, will take place in San Francisco, August 10th to 20th, and great times are promised all the Knights and their ladies who get there at that time.

Not only the members of the Order in California, but the State and city officials are up and doing, and their greetings to the visitors will be extended with a hospitality that will make every one glad he was a pilgrim.

All sorts of side trips are planned, incidentally, including sights of the orange groves and the olive and prune and almond orchards of the great Pacific State, and glimpses of Lake Tahoe, one of the highest lakes in the world, way up in the Sierra; of far-famed Yosemite; of Hotel del Monte, of the Lick Observatory, and hundreds of other spots worth seeing and knowing about.

Just now the nation with its Oriental responsibilities is facing west, and the Pythians are wise to go as far west as they can, and see and learn about the State that forms the nation's western front.

The railroads will make especially reasonable rates for the assembly, and already prospective excursionists from this locality are making their railroad arrangements.

Kodol
Digests what you Eat
Dyspepsia Cure

People once thought that the only way to cure indigestion was to stop eating. The trouble with such treatment is, that to stop eating is to stop living. KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE has changed the whole method of treating this complaint. It contains all the natural digestive fluids and digests all you eat without aid from the stomach, so you can eat all the good food you want and be cured of your trouble at the same time.

"I have been troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia for several years and often sat down to eat but had to give it up after eating only two bites. I used two bottles of KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE and am alright to-day. Can now eat anything I want. W. L. Easton, Audubon, Iowa."

It can't help but do you good

Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The $1. bottle contains 2½ times the 50c. size.

When you suffer from biliousness or constipation, use the famous little liver pills known as DeWitt's Little EARLY RISERS. They never gripe.

A Clear Head for Business.

A head that aches is a bar to business. Most headache medicines offered the public stop, but do not cure the attacks. Ease the pain but do not remove the cause. Do not give resistive power, act as sedatives or blanketing agents, require continued use. Continued loss means loss of effect or increased dose—possibly habit. Contrast this method of treatment with that of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills—A medicine that goes to the root of the trouble—a badly nourished nervous system—removes the cause removes it for good—gives back the power to think, to work, to act, by its unparalleled nerve rebuilding tonic properties. The only sensible, proper way to reach such trouble.

Sunbury.

Miss Jennie Zettlemoyer, of 300 North 4th street, Sunbury, Pa., says: "I have been troubled a long time with nervousness and at times would be so bad that I simply could not rest at night. I also was bothered a great deal with nervous headaches. I got some of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and they did me a world of good. I used two boxes in all and I rested and felt quieter and was not troubled with the headaches. I intend continuing their use and have great confidence in them."

A nerve Tonic never Equaled

Allegheny St.

Solomon Garrett, of No. 301 Allegheny street, Bellefonte, Pa., says: "I had been feeling very much run down and poorly for a long time. My head ached a great deal and I felt tired all over. I was also bothered with sleeplessness at night. I saw Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills so highly recommended I got a box at Krumrine's drug store and they did me a great deal of good. I felt first-rate after using them and have no hesitation in recommending them to others."

CALL FOR REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republicans of Centre county will meet in their respective voting places in the several election districts in the county on

SATURDAY, MAY 31, 1902,

For the purpose of electing delegates to the County Convention. The delegates so chosen will meet in convention at the Court House in Bellefonte, at 11 o'clock a. m., on MONDAY, JUNE 2, 1902.

For the purpose of electing two delegates to the Republican State Convention, which meets at Harrisburg on June 11th, 1902. The convention will also be asked to ratify the action of a conference recently held to prescribe rules to govern the nomination of candidates for Congress in this the 21st Congressional District.

The re-apportionment, under the rules of the party, entitles the various Precincts to the number of delegates indicated below:

THE meat trust threw a boomerang which has returned. Retail sales have fallen off so that the market is dull and profits small in spite of the high prices.

EDITOR MEEK'S INCONSISTENCY.

The venerable editor of the "Watchman" appears to be distressed because General Hastings has expressed a preference for Judge Samuel W. Pennypacker for the nomination to the office of Governor. Editor Meek has always been so solicitous of General Hastings' welfare that this new expression of anxiety is melting. Meek seems to be spending his old age in trying to save young men from the "mistakes of their lives."

His particular fear now is that Hastings is doing wrong in supporting Judge Pennypacker because Quay is in favor of the same man. This argument does not argue anything. Because Quay has been driven to the support of a worthy, gifted and competent candidate, therefore, those who despise Quay's methods should oppose him! This quality of logic is senile. It comes from the bric-a-brac counter.

To carry Mr. Meek's logic to its inevitable conclusion, we might advance a few illustrations:

Meek's opposition to Senator Heinle virulent and emancipative as it is, would, according to Meek's philosophy, drive all of Meek's friends into hostility to Heinle, but we have not heard of any such rush; neither have we heard of Meek's enemies stampeding to the Heinle camp just because of Meek's opposition.

When Meek stated in the "Watchman" that he had been to Harrisburg but three times during the sessions of the last Legislature and afterward stated under oath in his Clearfield libel case that he was in attendance almost continuously at the sessions of that notorious body, (we have the record before us), he told the truth in only one of these assertions. In the other he could not. But when he denied that he was assisting Quay and his friends to pass the Ripper bills and Franchise bills and other Quay-Elkin jobbery he arrayed a host of witnesses against his assertion, Senator Heinle among them no doubt. At all events, Meek did not spend the winter in Harrisburg as a health resort. He did not pay hotel bills for nothing. He attacked the Quay machine in the "Watchman" for home consumption; but that he was a glaring lobbyist has not yet been denied by his friends or enemies. Applying his philosophy to himself he ought to be opposed to himself on general principles.

Meek's solicitude for his neighbors is about as abortive as his philosophy. When he was arrested and imprisoned for treason during the war he did not injure the Union cause an iota.

When he insulted Blaine and Blaine's friends on the occasion of that statesman's only visit to Bellefonte he did not hurt Blaine or the Republican party to the amount of a single vote.

When the fettered waters of the Big Sandy were forced by private act of assembly to compel the forests to pay tribute to greed Meek hurt nobody so much as himself, but he established a code of morals and philosophy which go with him in his declining years.

DEMOCRATIC POLITICS.

At the coming Democratic convention a successor to John Bower, chairman of the Democratic county committee, will be elected. Mr. S. D. Gettig is the candidate of the Bower faction and David F. Fortney is the candidate of all the other Democratic elements. There will be a fight. It is now on. Bower wants Gettig to succeed Son John so as to hold the county organization in control until the county judge nomination is landed by Bower Senior.

Fortney, for chairman, is wanted by all the other elements. The other elements want Ellis L. Orvis for judge. Bower is Orvis' law partner. There is no outward friction yet, but both cannot be nominated for one judgeship at the same convention. Mr. Orvis is the popular choice. All hands think he would make an ideal judge. Bower controls the machine and his friends say he is just the timber for judge. So, another law firm is about to be rent by vaulting ambition.

Fortney, his friends affirm, as the wheel-horse of his party, should receive any honor which it can bestow. Mr. Gettig is a good Democrat in chrysalis period and a rising young lawyer. The figures in the contest are Pupa and Aurelia, with Golden Hair in the lead.

The template of the "Democrat" is on exhibition for Fortney, and the bric-a-brac department of the "Watchman" is undoubtedly laying some powder trains to blow up all opposition to Meek's ancient supremacy.

WHO WILL BE OUR CANDIDATE?

There are three candidates in the field for the Republican nomination for Governor of Pennsylvania. But ten days will elapse until the Republican voters of this county will be called upon to instruct their delegates to the state convention in favor of their choice for this office. Who will be our candidate?

Including the delegates from Philadelphia, Allegheny County and Lancaster, who will be subject to the orders of their political bosses, at least three-fourths of the delegates are already tied in one way or other to these three candidates. It only remains for us to throw our votes and influence in favor of the best man. We are in a position where any attempt to instruct for a new candidate would be likely to do more harm than good. What action Centre county shall take lies wholly within the power of the individual voter.

The candidates are all well known. It would be hard to find a man in the county who has not heard of John P. Elkin. What he has heard is another question. Does he know of the famous indemnity bond scandal and other similar affairs; has he watched his course during all of Stone's administration and the way in which each infamous act has been connected with the name of Elkin? If these things are known the voter has probably decided as to this creature of the machine, who is now attempting to gain its leadership and at the same time to secure a vindication for the last legislature and all of its enormities.

Lewis A. Watres, the Lackawanna millionaire, who has had the reputation of being on both sides of each important political question in the past, is a man of strict integrity and high personal character, who dabbles in politics as some millionaires do. However, as Mr. Watres has now only thirteen delegates out of three hundred and fifty eight, or since he needs at least one hundred and sixty seven more to obtain a majority of all, there is a chance that his name may be withdrawn before the convention meets.

The last candidate to appear is Samuel H. Pennypacker, for many years one of the most respected judges of the Philadelphia Courts, and who, before his selection to this office, was a strenuous opponent of bossism and machine politics. It is true that his candidacy has the support of Senator Quay, but all the factions in his city have united in an unqualified endorsement of Judge Pennypacker's ability and integrity. This is one time when, by the force of circumstances and outside influences, the senior Senator has risen above his ordinary level in supporting a candidate upon whom there is no stain or smirch of his machine's making.

The people of Pennsylvania, and especially those independent Republican voters who have honestly fought for their convictions in former years, are to be most heartily congratulated upon the present outcome. The only thing that can be said against Judge Pennypacker is that Quay favors him.

Which shall we chose; a man redolent with the odor of the machine, whose selection would be a complete indorsement of the Stone administration, or that candidate against whose ability and character not a word can be said, save that the one time boss of Pennsylvania recognizes his worth?

THE band of the Virginia Military Institute has just purchased in England the largest tuba or bass horn ever made. It weighs forty-six pounds and cost $325.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

At the last meeting of the directors of our public schools, Prof. C. L. Gramley, who was elected for another term of three years as County Superintendent, in emphatic language announced his intention to devote his whole time to the benefit of the children of Centre county. That Prof. Gramley means what he says is not to be questioned, his record for efficiency in the past speaks loudly enough. Nevertheless, there are certain improvements that must be made in the present school system and he can hasten them if he will.

The great majority of the children, both boys and girls, are taken from school by the time they reach the age of sixteen. Just when their minds have become sufficiently developed to begin to realize that education is a necessary preparation for life. They learn the rudimentary branches more or less thoroughly as they are fortunate or unfortunate in their teachers. Their training in other ways is left entirely to outside influence or to chance.

So far as the school is concerned, when the boys are turned out into the world, they are provided with no practical knowledge; they do not know how to use their hands. The girls may have learned, like the boys, to add, subtract, multiply and divide in figures, they may also have accumulated some little knowledge of history and geography, but, unless they have been taught at home which is not always the best teaching, they know nothing of cookery or of sewing and dressmaking.

Manual training school branches, where boys could be taught manual dexterity in the use of tools, whether with wood, stone or iron, should be established at once in the more prosperous school districts, to be followed by their establishment sooner or later in all the others.

A cooking school for the girls would be a blessing to many future homes, while a course in sewing and dressmaking would be of the greatest aid to the coming wives and mothers.

These training schools would help the boys to greatly shorten the time of apprenticeship in their chosen trade or calling, not by attempting to teach them a trade, but in instructing them how to use and handle tools of various description; the tendency being to make them more independent in their future work.

That every woman should know how to cook and to cook well will not be denied, and that she should have a knowledge of plain sewing is absolutely necessary; these two are every bit as important as her ability to read and write. The art of cooking the necessities of life and the sewing could be taught to the girls with very little expense and practically no waste of time.

Later, when the districts can afford it, elementary courses in chemistry might be started; these can all be carried on with no interruption of the regular work and will tend to give the children a broader idea of what the world will demand of them. All these ideas are being worked out day by day through our country in numerous places; and the instructors who have had experience in this training are unanimous in agreeing that the pupils both enjoy and profit by this system of instruction.

A CONVENTION representing the liquor interests of the country will meet at Pittsburg, June 6th, to organize a political party or movement to counteract the work that is being done by the temperance people. This speaks well for temperance reform.

GERMAN tariff reformers demanded that the Standard Oil monopoly in Germany be driven from the country, but the argument was put forward that a German trust would take its place, charge higher prices, and that the government would lose the import revenues that the Standard company now pays.

THE Georgia supreme court has decided that the anti-trust law of that state is unconstitutional; but says that both trusts and boycotts are illegal under common law, as against public policy.

TARIFF REVISION.

There appears to be a growing faction in the House which would like to see some action taken towards tariff revision but those republicans who are so disposed will not press the matter at this late date. Speaking on this subject the other day Representative Heatwole said, "It is a matter of grave regret to me to see the end of the session approaching with no step taken in the direction of tariff revision. I am no less of a protectionist today than I always was, but as a consistent protectionist, I know that tariff schedules require revision from time to time, as conditions change. The statesman who would recommend the passage of a tarriff bill which has not been carefully and accurately adjusted to the industrial needs of the country would be laughed at. Now, no one can deny that those needs change and logically the tariff schedules must be readjusted to meet the new conditions. For instance, the steel industry no longer requires protection and the tariff on steel, having served its purpose and built up the industry, should be wiped out. It has become worse than useless. The same is true of the tariff on lumber, wood-pulp and, to a great extent, of the tariff on glass.

"The friends of protection should face the issue and revise the tariff along progressive lines. Failure to do so is apt to produce a revulsion of feeling on the part of the voters which might result in democratic gains and one experience of tariff revision by the democrats has been quite sufficient to demonstrate how disastrous their legislation would prove to the country." In reply to a question, Mr. Heatwole said that, while the short session was not an auspicious time for tariff revision, he would labor earnestly for some modification of the existing schedules preparatory to general revision by the Fifty-Eighth Congress.

IN England it is common for one man to own a piece of ground and another the building on it. In this country it is not usual to divide proprietorship, although Russell Sage leases the ground on which his house stands from Elbridge Gerry Forty-four years ago he paid $700 a year on a 22 year lease and renewed at $3,300 a year; and now he has just renewed it again at $12,500. This shows the increase in New York real estate values in 44 years, the rent rate having increased 1,800 per cent.

THE recent harvest of death has been without parallel in many years. The literary world has lost Frank R. Stockton, Bret Harte and Paul Leicester Ford; De Witt Talmage and Archbishop Corrigan have gone from the ecclesiastical field; three prominent Congressmen, Cummings Otey and Salmon, died within five days; Potter Palmer has been taken from the mercantile ranks; Admiral Sampson has just been buried, and it has not been long since the death of Cecil Rhodes.

TESTS have been made in South German schools to see what powers of observation the pupils had. A man was put in a room and different classes of girls and boys were sent through it and asked to describe him. Eighty per cent of the girls described only his clothes and the rest, clothes and features. About 70 per cent of the boys confined their observations to the features and the remainder to features and clothes.

OUR world's fairs are setting us the example of procrastination if nothing else. Chicago was a year late in celebrating the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America; Buffalo lost $4,000,000 because the first visitors came away with the report that exhibits were not in place and the braggadocio of St. Louis has fallen very flat in the announcement that her fair will be at least a year late.

GIVING OUT.

The Struggle Discourages Many a Citizen of Bellefonte.

Around all day with an aching back.
Can't rest at night.
Enough to make anyone "give out."
Doan's Kidney Pills will give renewed life.
They will cure the backache.
Cure every kidney ill.
Here is Bellefonte proof that this is so.

Mr. George Cox, residing on what is known as Half Moon Hill, says: "I can conscientiously recommend Doan's Kidney Pills judging from what they did for me. I suffered intensely from pains in my back and lameness across my kidneys. Statements in this paper about Doan's Kidney Pills attracted my attention and I called on F. Potts Green, the druggist, and got a box. They did me a great deal of good although I did not take them as regularly as I should, for the moment the pain ceased and I felt better I stopped taking them. They gave me the greatest relief and I can give them the credit of saving me much suffering."

How Cheap Baking Powder is Made.

The Health Department of New York has seized a quantity of so called cheap baking powder which it found in that city. Attention was attracted to it by the low price at which it was being sold in the department stores. Samples were taken and the chemist of the Health Department reported the stuff to be "an alum powder" which analysis showed to be composed chiefly of alum and pulverized rock. The powder was declared to be dangerous to health, and several thousand pounds were carted to the offal dock and destroyed.

It is unsafe to experiment with these so called "cheap" articles of food. They are sure to be made, from alum rock, or other injurious matter. In baking powders the high class, cream of tarter brands are the most economical, because they go farther in use and are healthful beyond question.

—The Physical Culture Contest, now pending, under the auspices of the Police Gazette, is undoubtedly the most successful sporting competition ever held. Thousands of portraits, received from all parts of the country, demonstrate the physical supremacy of America, and it is a fact that Sandow is not to be compared with some of the specimens of muscular development which are being considered by Mr. Richard K. Fox in the competition for the diamond championship medal and three prizes in gold.

Improvements at the Academy.

It will be of interest to the friends of the Academy to learn that the principals are arranging to add another mathematical instructor to the faculty next year. The rapid growth of this institution in its several departments has made this improvement necessary. There will probably be nine teachers doing the work of this excellent institution when the addition above mentioned is made. Mr James Hughes visited Princeton University recently and secured a gentleman by the name of C. S. Shricerbeaux to succeed Mr. Killen in the coming year. This gentleman had considerable experience in teaching before entering College and has tutored during his entire University course. He was highly recommended to Mr. Hughes both by the faculty and the members of the senior class. He has been an honorman in scholarship and strong and popular in athletic life. He will organize classes in the study of Spanish thus extending to the students of our town a privilege that ought to be appreciated. The extra mathematical instructor has not yet been chosen, though several strong applications for the position have been sent to the principals. With Rev. J. P. Hughes and his two able assistants in charge of the mathematics and science the Academy is as strong in this most important department as any school in the country. Miss Overton, Miss Hill and Miss Davis will return to continue their worthy share in the successful work of the Academy. Every citizen in this community who is financially able to do so should encourage in every possible way the Messrs Hughes in their efforts to maintain an Academy here in Bellefonte that is second to none in thorough work done. And they are certainly sparing no expense to provide educated and experienced teachers and to furnish the best modern equipments for successful teaching. Without experienced teachers and suitable apparatus attempts at education are a mere pretense.

A Big Advertising Contract.

It is reported that John Wanamaker has closed a contract with the New York Journal for a four page advertisement for one year, and that the contract calls for the expenditure of $150,000. This is said to be the largest contract ever placed with a daily newspaper in the country. Last year Mr. Wanamaker paid what is said to be the largest contract ever placed with a daily newspaper in this country $385,000. to the Philadelphia newspapers, and he is not the only heavy advertiser. Lit Brothers pay $112,500. for a single page in the Philadelphia Record and $10,000 is what it costs to get the last page in the Ladies' Home Journal just one time. Among your acquaintances, who are the most successful business men, those who advertise or those who don't ?

The Water Street Wall.

A few weeks since the REPUBLICAN advocated the building of a retaining wall along Water street instead of spending a large amount of money on a proposed pumping station at the water works.

A careful estimate of the expense necessary to make this improvement has resulted in the following figures :

Cost necessary to build a stone wall as high as the last flood, 3 feet at bottom to 1 foot at top	$ 1600.00
Cost of flagstone pavement, stones to be four feet wide and four inches thick, with a good iron handrail built into the stones, about	750.00

This expense would be materially decreased if council would widen and straighten Water street by cutting away the ledge of rock that juts out just beyond the Bush Arcade and use this material in the proposed wall. In fact, with economy and careful management, the whole job could be put through at very little over two thousand dollars. It will cost almost one-half of this sum to rebuild a respectable boardwalk that will promptly disappear in any such flood as we had this year.

Every passenger on the Central Railroad Company would use the northern end of this proposed walk, the Pennsylvania Match Co. and the Nittany Iron Co. employees will all use the southern end more or less, beside the ordinary traffic. Council should awaken to the fact that Water street is of far greater importance than it used to be and is rapidly becoming one of the town's principal thoroughfares.

Just because everything is so badly torn up along this street there is no time like the present to make this permanent improvement that will be such a great protection to the property owners and add so greatly to the beauty of Spring Creek. An improvement in which each member of the present council could take a personal pride for years to come.

—In late years men have made fortunes out of the tailings of gold mines. The mills in which the ore formerly was crushed and the crude processes then in use allowed a large percentage of the precious metal to escape, and that loss amounted in some cases to a fortune. The stomach is just like a stamp mill in this respect, that when it is not in perfect order it allows the escape and waste of much of the precious nutriment contained in the food. That loss when continuous means the loss of man's greatest fortune, health. Science offers a remedy for this condition in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It corrects the weakness" of the stomach, prevents waste and loss of nourishment, and puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition into a condition of health which enables them to save and assimilate all the nutriment contained in the food which is eaten. In all cases of constipation the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will speedily and permanently cure the disease.

Big Parade Next Saturday.

Saturday May 24th we are to have another big parade, as Lincoln Musser has four car load of the "Deering" machines at the Pennsylvania freight station to unload. The parade will have in it 100 teams of beautiful horses, and a brass band. Mr. Musser and his many assistants will take dinner at the Bush House.

"You may be a clergyman," said the railway dignitary to the stranger who had applied for a half fare permit, "but you haven't furnished me sufficient evidence of it. How do you pronounce M-e-l-c-h-i-z-e-d-e-k?"

"Mel-kez-e-dek," promptly responded the stranger.

THOROUGHLY CHINESE.

Canton Is One of the Oldest Cities In the World.

Canton, the capital of the province of Kwangtung, has a population of about 2,600,000 and is one of the oldest cities in the world, and until the port of Hongkong was opened it was the export city of the empire. Its old walls and fortifications, with their old guns, are all now obsolete and entirely neglected, remaining only as monuments of departed ages. They have never been of service except as warning of danger to an invading foe and no doubt had the desired effect until the last half century.

Canton is said to be absolutely and thoroughly Chinese, and there is no other city in the empire that is more so. There it exists today, with its narrow streets, its old temples, its wealth, its extreme poverty and its peculiarly constructed buildings, and when one considers the habits and customs of its people and their achievements in the arts so characteristic of that country, its ancient history so resplendent centuries ago, unless that history is a fable, and sees there now so much that is filthy and repugnant to common decency and civilization the present state of the country needs but to be seen to be condemned.

No stranger is respected or safe from insult within its limits unless he has official or military bearing or is in care of a trusty guide—one of their own countrymen, armed with plenary license and power.

Friendly Foes In Kentucky, 1862.

In these matters of principle not a hand was raised to prevent a free choice. No feeling of personal hatred stood between those who saw life's duty differently. A neighbor to the right of a little home called one evening on his neighbor to the left. He kissed the children and shook hands with the parents.

"I may not see you again. Tonight I go to join Morgan," he said.

THE GREAT POETS.

Do Not Study Them For Knowledge; Read Them For Culture.

Young men and young women actually go to college to take a course in Shakespeare or Chaucer or Dante or the Arthurian legends. The course becomes a mere knowledge course. My own acquaintance with Milton was through an exercise in grammar. We parsed "Paradise Lost." Much of the current college study of Shakespeare is little better than parsing him. The class falls upon the text like hens upon a bone in winter. No meaning of phrase escapes them; every line is literally picked to pieces. But of the poet himself, of that which makes him what he is, how much do they get? Very little, I fear. They have had intellectual exercise and not an emotional experience. They have added to their knowledge, but have not taken a step in culture.

To dig into the roots and origins of the great poets is like digging into the roots of an oak or maple the better to increase your appreciation of the beauty of the tree. There stands the tree in all its summer glory. Will you really know it any better after you have laid bare every root and rootlet? There stand Homer, Dante, Chaucer and Shakespeare. Read them, give yourself to them, and master them if you are man enough.

The poets are not to be analyzed; they are to be enjoyed; they are not to be studied, but to be loved; they are not for knowledge, but for culture—to enhance our appreciation of life and our mastery over its elements. All the mere facts about a poet's work are as chaff as compared with the appreciation of one fine line or fine sentence. Why study a great poet at all after the manner of the dissecting room? Why not rather seek to make the acquaintance of his living soul and to feel its power?—John Burroughs in Century.

William Shakespeare.

What point of morals, of manners, of economy, of philosophy, of religion, of taste, of the conduct of life, has he not settled? What mystery has he not signified his knowledge of? What office or function or district of man's work has he not remembered? What king has he not taught state, as Talma taught Napoleon? What maiden has not found him finer than her delicacy? What lover has he not outloved? What sage has he not outseen? What gentleman has he not instructed in the rudeness of his behavior?—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Hunting by Moonlight.

"I believe that moonlight shooting is peculiar to California," said a resident of that state. "The air there is so dry in certain localities, the nights so clear and the moonlight so bright that one gets a good range of vision, and everything stands out with startling distinctness. Wild ducks frequently move in the night, and the sportsman who is alert will get the whir of wings and a sight of them almost as well at night as in the daytime. There is an added tinge of excitement afforded by a night hunt, and many California hunters go out on clear nights and frequently with great success."—New York Tribune.

An Odd Turkish Superstition.

An odd Turkish superstition is as follows: If one finds a piece of bread lying upon the ground, he must pick it up, kiss it and carry it until he finds a hole into which the bread can be inserted. To step upon a piece of bread or to leave it lying upon the ground is one of the unpardonable sins and dooms the offender to the third hell, where he is perpetually gored by an ox that has but a single horn that is in the center of his forehead.

PHOSPHORESCENT OCEAN.

Little Gelatinous Organisms Which Create the Appearance.

A milky opalescence, permeating the entire sea for immense distances bounded only by the horizon, is a somewhat rare phenomenon. It appears quite suddenly, lasts perhaps for several hours and passes away as rapidly as it came, and this without apparent cause. At midnight we had the singular whiteness enveloping the sea, while the more brilliant kinds of phosphorescence shone in the midst of flashing green, yellow or bluish lights, as the case might be—a gorgeous nocturnal display.

During these hours my surface trawl net drifted astern of the ship. The water was alive with countless myriads of little gelatinous sacs measuring one-sixth of an inch in length—delicate tunicate organisms which required the aid of a microscope to reveal their perfect structure. A few specimens placed in an empty meat tin in a darkened cabin could be seen indeed with the naked eyes careening madly around in the salt water, each one glowing with that peculiar opalescent light which saturated the entire sea for so many miles. It was a small species of salpa, nearly related to a much larger kind on the side of which the late Professor Moseley wrote his name with his finger, the signature being visible on the dead body throughout the night, glowing with the brightest phosphorescent light.—Cornhill Magazine.

Speaking English.

Almost any one who speaks English might be put down successively in half a dozen places where English is supposed to be the mother tongue and hear as many dialects spoken, not one of which he would understand until it was interpreted. An old Lancashire worthy and a London lady were one day occupants of a railway carriage. The train had been waiting long at a certain station, and there was no appearance of it starting when the worthy remarked:

"They're a gly, tanglesome lot here."

"I beg your pardon," said the lady.

"I'm sayin' they're a gey daidlin' lot here."

"I really beg your pardon, sir."

"I'm observin' they are a vera dreich lot here the nicht."

"Really I must again beg your pardon. I don't comprehend you."

"I was just tryin' to say that the train was late."

"Indeed, sir, it is—very late," agreed the lady and then collapsed.—London Tit-Bits.

Sulphur.

Sulphur occurs very widely distributed in the mineral kingdom, partly free and partly combined with other elements. The free sulphur is either found pure in regularly formed crystals or intimately mixed with earthy matters. In its native state sulphur is largely found in Sicily and Italy and as a general rule in abundance in volcanic districts. The brittleness of sulphur renders the cleavage imperfect.

Sulphuric acid is an important combination and a very dangerous one in inexperienced hands. Sulphur combined with a number of elements, such as iron, copper, lead, etc., furnishes the sulphides. In the vegetable kingdom sulphur is a small constituent of the albuminous bodies and of certain volatile irritant oils. Moreover, the vegetable juices contain it in the form of certain sulphates.

Hedgehog and Viper.

A resident of Versailles, M. Guignet, sends to Nature a vivid account of a duel he saw between a hedgehog and a viper. The two enemies knew very well at first sight who was who, and eyed each other as if they knew a moment's inattention would be fatal. The viper was the first to get tired of gazing, and it began to glide away. Just then the hedgehog rushed for the viper's tail, and, having nailed it fast with its teeth, it rolled itself up. The hedgehog was very careful, however, not to cut the tail off. The viper curled back and delivered furious assaults on its aggressor, wrestling and rolling with the curled up hedgehog all over the place. At length the snake, wounded in a hundred places, died. The hedgehog began its repast on the tail of its victim and was careful not to eat the head.

Queer Medicine.

At the Shanghai police court recently a curious object was handed up to the bench for inspection. It was contained in a square yellow box and resembled nothing more than a piece of black wax. It weighed about two ounces, and the policeman in charge of the case explained to the court that it was a Chinese medicine compound of monkeys' toe nails boiled down and hardened by being buried underground for a number of years. It had been stolen from a native apothecary's shop in Nanking road. Monkeys' toe nails, it appears, are a well known remedy among the Chinese for stomach troubles.

Some Phonetic Spelling.

Before we complain of the spelling of our daughters we should perhaps take exception to the pronunciation of our fathers. Most of the eccentricities in spelling common to children arise from their attempts to reproduce words as they hear them pronounced by their elders. A child who was told to make a list of all the fruits she knew wrote down, "Apls, strorbris, rarsbriz, goozbris, bnarners." Another spelled the word "idea" with the addition of an "r." "Idear!" exclaimed her teacher. "That is a funny way of spelling idea." Her pupil, however, was not to be outdone. "I know," she answered readily, "but I spelled it that way for short."—London Chronicle.

VALPARAISO AMUSEMENT.

Sunday Is the Great Gala Day For Rich and Poor Alike.

All around the edge of Valparaiso bay is a string of little towns so close together that you cannot readily discover where one leaves off and the next begins. The most pretentious of these is Vina del Mar, which is a very popular seaside resort. During the summer season, from December to February, it is a gay place. A short distance from the town is the "cancha," or race track, in connection with which are golf links, cricket and polo grounds, all managed by the English sporting clubs. The polo matches and the races are over by the 1st of December, but cricket, golf and tennis go on all summer. Tennis tournaments are held, lasting for several weeks. Most of these sports, with the exception of tennis, which goes on all the time, take place on Sunday. Sunday is the great gala day, when all the population, rich and poor alike, turn out to have a good time.

The common people find their holiday sport in getting gloriously drunk. If you walk along the street on Sunday afternoon, you must not be surprised to meet every few minutes individuals decidedly unsteady on their feet. The little wineshops do a rushing business, and there is always a large crowd about the door watching and loudly applauding the dancing of the "cueca," which goes on all day. This is a sort of national dance, performed to the accompaniment of the guitar. The dance is quaint and rather pretty if the dancers are sober, but in its ordinary environment it is far from inviting.

During a good season at Vina del Mar one has an excellent opportunity of seeing the aristocratic Chileans of Santiago. In January Santiago is very warm, and the society people come down to the coast during the hot weather. The ladies are many of them quite handsome. They all dress gorgeously and have very bad manners. They stroll along the hotel plazza, and if they see anything that arouses their curiosity in any of the rooms they stop and look on serenely, regardless of the occupant. They never make their appearance until 10 or 11 o'clock in the morning, when they go down to the beach for a morning dip. After the 11 o'clock breakfast they disappear until 4 o'clock, when they all come out in gowns that would rival Solomon in all his glory. They either drive on the beach and trail their skirts and embroidered chiffons through the sand or stroll up and down the long platform of the railroad station, watching the trains pass. These exciting diversions occupy them until dinner. Sometimes there are dances in the evening—dances called so only by courtesy, for they rarely dance; they only walk around and exhibit their gowns.—Indianapolis News.

Drugstores Old and New.

Sometimes it seems as if drugstores have everything except drugs. The middle aged man or woman remembers when the apothecary shop had a distinctive smell of drugs and chemicals. Nothing was in sight but jars of wondrously colored liquids and powders, crystals and sticks and drawers of curious things with Latin labels. The only thing that was at all attractive for the women was the case of fancy soaps and perfumes, with face powders and cosmetics, and for the men the case of cigars. The soda fountain made the first innovation. It was no such pretentious affair as now dominates the corner drugstore, however. It stood modestly on one end of the counter. There were five or six kinds of sirups and no ice cream or hot drinks. Later candy found a place in the apothecary's, then came stationery, and now there are all sorts of bric-a-brac.—New York Press.

"The Great Unknown."

For thirteen years the author of "Waverley" was unknown. Indeed the country spoke of him as "the great unknown," a pseudonym Sir Walter Scott often employed in writing. But on Feb. 23, 1827, Sir Walter gave a dinner party to which, among others, Lord Meadowbank, the judicial magnate, who chanced to know his host's secret, was invited. Then when the toasts were being drunk Meadowbank, with Scott's permission, got up and proposed the health of "the great unknown, Sir Walter Scott." The effect was magical, and the news spread through the country like wildfire. Indeed that dinner and the secret it disclosed was the most talked of event of the year.

Where English Clubs Differ.

A point which strikes American visitors to London about our English clubs is the social aspect of them and the almost complete absence of the business side. At the Manhattan or the Knickerbocker, on the other hand, the business side prevails. The majority of members do not drop in merely to read the papers, hear the latest story and play billiards, as over here. They go in most cases to meet a man about "a deal," to talk over the business of the day and discuss the business of the morrow or to read up the finance of the papers. The result is that when an American becomes a member of an English club he hardly ever uses it because its ways do not appeal to him. He would say that there was nothing going on.—London Tatler.

PROF. J. ANGEL

AN EXPERT

Eye Specialist!

of Williamsport, will make his monthly visit here

ONE DAY ONLY,

Wed. May 28,

from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., with headquarters at

THE GARMAN HOUSE

Bellefonte, Pa.

I can examine your eyes at your home, by appointment, without extra charge.

If you need me at your home drop me a line in care of Garman House.

Hundreds are going blind daily, from the need of the proper prescribed glasses and from delaying attention to the eyes from time to time. Nothing will destroy your eyesight quicker than cheap glasses or glasses not properly fitted to your eyes.

Prof. Angel, in the short time he has been visiting this section, has met with marked success. Scores of leading citizens of this community have found relief from his treatment. It is not necessary to travel to Eastern cities for treatment when you can consult an eminent oculist at home.

Will be at HOWARD on

Tues'y, May 27th.

An East Indian Amulet.

In India a variety of gems and stones are used as amulets. The most common is the salagrama, a stone about as large as a billiard ball and which is perforated with black. This is supposed to be found only in Gandaki, a river in Nepaul. The person who possesses one of these stones is esteemed highly fortunate. He preserves it in a clean cloth, from whence it is sometimes taken to be bathed and perfumed. He believes that the water in which it is washed, if drunk, has the power to preserve from sin. Holding it in his hand, the dying Hindoo expires in peace, trusting in a stone rather than in the living God.

A Possible Solution.

"I believe that house is haunted. The tenant says he hears some one rapping on the walls at night."

"Maybe its walls are covered with wrapping paper."—New York Times.

Nothing will look after itself more carefully and more cautiously and more successfully than a dollar, unless it be two dollars.—Canfield, "The College Student."

Like a Drowning Man.

"Five years ago a disease the doctors called dyspepsia took such hold of me that I could scarcely go." writes Geo. S. Marsh, well-known attorney of Nocona, Tex. "I took quantities of pepsin and other medicine but nothing helped me. As a drowning man grabs at a straw I grabbed at Kodol. I felt an improvement at once and after a few bottles am well." Kodol is the only preparation which exactly reproduces the natural digestive juices and consequently is the only one which digests any good food and cures any form of stomach trouble. C. M. Parrish.

—Through the efforts of the W. C. T. Union the citizens of Bellefonte will be afforded, on Thursday evening, May 22nd the rare privilege of enjoying a lecture under the title "Going in to Win," delivered in Petrikin hall, by the honorable J. M. Belford, of Riverhead, N. Y. He in obedience to the persistent invitation of some of the ladies, has been induced to officiate, although at a considerable sacrifice to his large legal practice. For cogency of thought, elegance of style and the arts that go to constitute the polished speaker Mr. Belford has few equals, and it is to be hoped, that the initial entertained under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. will be greeted by an audience such as its refreshing, and elevating character deserves.

Will Cure Consumption.

A. A. Herren, Finch, Ark., writes, "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best preparation for coughs, colds and lung trouble. I know that it has cured consumption in the first stages." C. M. Parrish.

Received the Money.

The distribution of funds was made Thursday to the Clintondale fire sufferers. Amounts were given as follows: Isaac Kling, $150; Samuel Shilling, $150; Mrs. George Rishel, $50; David Wolf, $30, Harry Kling, $12; Mrs. Felding, $15 Groceries, provisions, household articles and clothing were also distributed.

A Lesson in Health.

Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder diseases. It strengthens the whole system. C. M. Parrish.

—One of Welsh Brothers circus horses fell and broke its leg at Lock Haven Friday. The animal was shot.

—Preparations are being made to erect a Catholic church at Jersey Shore. It will probably cost $10,000.

—The Methodist of Lamar are remodeling their church. The interior will be changed and a new roof and belfry will be constructed.

—Charles Miller, little son of Policman Harry Miller has the scarlet fever. The home in Beaver and Hoy row, was quarantined Thursday morning.

—The President Wednesday sent to the Senate the nomination of Dr. Hugh Pitcairn, of Pennsylvania, to be consul general at Hamburg, Germany.

—John A. Sheaffer, aged 40 years, who was suddenly stricken blind at Burnham, near Lewistown, a short time ago, has regained his sight as suddenly and mysteriously as it left him.

—Forepaugh & Sells Brothers circus was wrecked 4 miles east of Harrisburg Thursday morning at 5 o'clock. Two cars were smashed up and five men seriously hurt.

—Frank H. Clemson moved his family Wednesday from Scotia to Bellefonte and is now comfortably ensconced in their newly re-modeled residence near the Nittany Furnace, of which Mr. Clemson is to be the superintendent.

—Mr. Ward V. Schenck, our assistant postmaster, and Miss Lizzie Mann, one of Howard's fine young ladies were united in marriage on Thursday evening, May 15, 1902, by Rev. I. N. Bair, at the United Evangelical parsonage. The Hustler wishes for them a long and happy life.—Howard Hustler.

—The golden robbin or Baltimore oriole, beautiful song birds, are more numerous in this section this spring than for many years past. The oriole, with its black and orange plumage, is among the handsomest of our spring visitors, and the clear, flute-like notes of the feathered songster are heard early and late. The early morning songs are especially charming.

Boom for Jersey Shore.

The Jersey Shore Herald says that the syndicate of out of town capitalists that is to boom the Third ward of that place intends to erect within two months a $40-000 brick plant employing 200 men and among other plants that is likely to locate there is a foundry, cotton mill and patent car wheel works. Houses in large numbers will also be built.

What Thin Folks Need

Is a greater power of digesting and assimilating food. For them Dr. King's New Life Pills work wonders. They tone and regulate the digestive organs, gently expel all poisons from the system, enrich the blood, improve appetite, make healthy flesh. Only 25c at Green's Pharmacy.

Williamsport's City Clerk Dead.

City Clerk Theodore Cornman, of Williamsport, died in the Danville hospital Thursday afternoon. He had been in that institution about a month. His mind became affected from an attack of typhoid fever. He was 34 years old.

—The St. Louis Fair has been postponed until 1904.

—James G. Kunes, of Fleming, has been granted a pension of $17.00 per month.

—Capt. Hugh S. Taylor will be the Decoration Day orator at Spring Mills this year.

—J. C. Meyer Esq., of Bellefonte, will deliver the Decoration Day oration at Pine Grove Mills.

—The A class at the Bellefonte Hizh school will contest for the "Heylman" prize of $10.00 next Friday.

—Three more stars will be added to the flag. On Friday congress passed the bill to admit New Mexico, Arizona and Dakota as states of the Union.

—Operations on rebuilding the burned Evangelical church at Clintondale have been commenced. Isaac Kling has also started work on rebuilding his home.

—M. Fauble has sold his fast pacing gelding "Grape-shot" to R. V. Vaughn, of Altoona. The horse is a fine animal and has a mark of 2:20 flat. Mr. Vaughn expects to campaign him.

—William Frantz, the blacksmith from Waddle's who was operated on for appendicitis in the Hayes hospital in this place recently, was far enough recovered from its effects to return home last week.

—The American Mechanics will establish a new lodge in Bellefonte June 1 with about thirty-five charter members. All persons who desire to join should send their names at once to R. T. Masker, Bellefonte.

—The Pennsylvania railroad has shipped 15,000 young locust trees to Newton Hamilton, to be set out on the Ingram farm in Wayne township. These trees will be planted eight feet apart and cultivated until they are large enough for cross-ties. This is to be an experiment which, if successful, will be followed by other and larger ventures in the same line.

Driven Crazy by Loss of Savings.

The American Lime and Stone company, of Bellefonte, employ several hundred Hungarians and Italians. Monday night a large shanty in which one hundred of the foreigners sleep caught fire and was totally destroyed. Many had their money stored away in trunks and boxes and in trying to get it out many of them ran great risks to their lives After the blaze was over some of them almost become maniacs.

Married

Mr. Thomas Miller aged 65 and Miss Ella Walker aged 17 both, of Marsh Creek were united in the holy bonds of matrimony on Sunday last at the home of the bride by John Knarr J. P. of Curtin township assisted by J. P. Freed of Williamsport in the presence of a large number of guests. On Monday evening about 100 men, women and children turned out and gave them a good serenading.

Ed. Purcell, of Lewistown Narrows, came up on the train from Mifflin, Wednesday evening, in a rather hilarious mood, and stopped with the men working on the railroad grading. A rattlesnake captured by the men a couple days before was confined in a box, and Purcell imagined he was a snake-charmer and undertook to take the reptile out of the box, when he was bitten on the hand four times. Dr. Hunter was summoned and treated him and he is getting along all right. The large dose of antidote taken in advance helped to neutralize the poison.—Sentinel.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

That of the Presbyterian Church of the United States Meeting in New York.

LEADING MINISTERS PRESENT

Late in the Afternoon Dr. VanDyke Was Elected Moderator on the Second Ballot.

THE SESSIONS WILL BE IMPORTANT

NEW YORK, May 16.—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America convened at 11 o'clock yesterday in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church of this city. The forenoon was taken up in passing on the credentials of the 600 Commissioners.

Among the leading ministers present are the Rev. Dr. David Gregg, of Brooklyn; the Rev. Dr. R. K. Booth, of New York; the Rev. Dr. Richard S. Holme, the Rev. Dr. Thomas Parry and the Rev. Dr. Henry D. Lindsay, of Pittsburg; the Rev. Dr. E. D. Morris, of Columbus; the Rev. Dr. Herrick Johnson, of Chicago; the Rev. Dr. H. C. Minton, of San Francisco, and the Rev. Dr. John C. McClintock, of Iowa.

Among the laymen are the Hon. John Foster and Justice John M. Harlan, of Washington, D. C.; Robert Pitcairn, vice moderator of the Assembly, and Samuel P. Harrison, of Pittsburg; John Converse, of Philadelphia, and Louis S. H. Severance, of Cleveland.

The pulpit platform was ornamented with flowers and plants for the opening exercises. The Rev. Dr. Henry Collin Minton, the retiring Moderator, opened the Assembly with a sermon and was assisted in the devotional exercises by the Rev. Dr. William Henry Roberts, the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, and the Rev. Dr. William B. Noble, of Redlands, Cal., Permanent Clerk. After the sermon Dr. Minton constituted the Assembly with prayer, and after the report of the committee of arrangements the Assembly adjourned until 3 p. m.

Dr. Henry VanDyke, professor of literature at Princeton University, was late in the afternoon elected Moderator of the General Assembly. He was elected on the second ballot. The result of the first ballot was:

Dr. VanDyke, 217; Dr. Kerr, 86; Dr. Holmes, 90; Dr. Moffatt, 144; Dr. Duffield, 61. There were 598 votes cast; 299 being necessary to elect.

There was some discussion as to whether another ballot should be cast before the end of the session as there was a communion service scheduled. After some talk it was decided to take another ballot. Before this was done, however, Dr. Robert R. Booth, of New York, arose and withdrew the name of Dr. Duffield. He said that this was done at the request of Dr. Duffield.

The result of the second ballot was:

Dr. VanDyke, 298; Dr. Moffatt, 227; Dr. Holmes, 49. In this ballot 297 were necessary to elect. Dr. VanDyke's election was then made unanimous.

How's This?

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c per bottle. Sold by all druggists. Testimonials free.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Popular With His Constituents.

State Senator Heinle of Bellefonte, was calling upon friends in town Wednesday afternoon in connection with his political business. He was sent as a substitute by the Centre county Democratic chairman and assisted in the formulating of the rules govering congressional nominations. Senator Heinie will be a candidate for re-election and will have the unanimous endorsement of his party. He has been an excellent and obliging servant of the people and has made himself very popular with his constituents. In the event of Mr. Patton's nomination, the race between the two will be a very interesting one. The district is composed of the counties of Clearfield, Centre and Clinton.—DuBois Express.

Traveling is Dangerous.

Constant motion jars the kidneys which are kept in place in the body by delicate attachments. This is the reason that travelers, trainmen, street car men, teamsters and all who drive very much suffer from kidney diseases in some form. Foley's Kidney Cure strengthens the kidneys and cures all forms of kidney and bladder diseases. Geo. H. Hausan, locomotive engineer, Lima, O., writes. "Constant vibration of the engine caused me a great deal of trouble with my kidneys, and I got no relief until I used Foley's Kidney Cure." C. M. Parrish.

—Summer will probably now conclude to try again and see if it can get there. Past efforts in that line have not been particularly encouraging.

Observations.

No matter how much one's brains weigh their price is regulated by their salability in the hour of need.

The public is not injured by a woman's lack of heart so often as by her lack of conscience.

Could women eliminate the personal note their remarks might grow in charm and comprehensiveness.

It would be more than man who could live up to his fond mother's ideal of him, and more than woman for a girl to reach her lover's estimate.

It is very fine to have a friend stand by you, but to have a foe say he will doubles any trouble.

Women will forgive a man any offence but ridicule.

The tongue is not large, but it is more durable than all our other organs.

Sentiment is of God, but sentimentality from the demon.

Never expect a woman to forget; she cannot, even as a man cannot remember the happenings of early romance.

A negative is never so helpless as when placed between two petticoated positions.

There are men who consider it effeminate to have good manners.

There is nothing so sad as a childish old man, unless it be an old child.

The hour and the man may arrive, but Beauty often makes the last wait, for discipline.

A "perfect gentleman" is usually a very disagreeable person. A manly fellow, who is also a gentleman, is always his superior.—Philadelphia Record.

Holds Up a Congressman.

"At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking, I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all the organs in my body were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-around medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Over-worked, run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid health and vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed at Green's Pharmacy.

Has Strange Ideas.

There is a man living not many miles from Houtzdale, Clearfield county, who advances some very queer ideas. He has always professed Christianity, but he can swap horses and get more boot than anybody we ever knew of. He is a clever story teller and talks sanctification to his poor victim, who often trades horses to get rid of him.

This man believes that the wind is the breath of dying persons, and says that when the weather is violent and stormy it is an indication that more wicked than good have expired.

He believes that no person can embrace religion whose stomach is not in the pink of condition, and in his own words says "that the stomach and entrails must be in a healthy condition or a person can have none other than evil inclinations."

It is this crank's firm belief that the stomach is a rendezvous for devils and that it is full of the little imps, who are continually pricking away at the vitals in order to produce evil results and keep evil predominating over good.—Barnesboro Sentinel.

Twenty Seven Bridges.

Extensive improvements are to be made on the Pennsylvania division of the New York Central railroad, including the rebuilding of twenty-seven bridges, most of them on the Beech Creek, and the filling in and banking of the tracks. Plans for the work, which is necessitated by the acquisition of ten new monster freight engines and heavier traffic have been completed. The Viaduct bridge standing 108 feet above the water, is one of the number that will be rebuilt.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS.

Organize Themselves Into An Athletic Association.

The students of Bellefonte High School held a meeting Thursday afternoon and organized a society the object of which is the promoting of a better school spirit and athletics in general. The boys acted in a business like manner, they adopted a constitution and elected their officers as follows:

President—Strohm Lose.
Vice President—Fred Chambers.
Secretary—Paul Longacre.
Treasurer—Prof. W. F. Kienzle.

The society is called the Bellefonte High School Athletic Association.

For Over Sixty Years.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cure wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by all druggists in all parts of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" and take no other kind.

Given $4,000 Damages.

Some months ago, G. J. Confer, of Howard, was struck by a passenger train while attempting to drive across the Pennsylvania railroad tracks at Howard Station, and injured severely, He brought suit to recover damages to the extent of $10,000. The case was tried in common pleas court at this place and a jury awarded Confer a verdict of $4,000.

REAL ENJOYMENT.

The woman who reads this will understand to the full what Mrs. Tipton meant when she says: "I am enjoying good health." It takes a person who has been made wretched by sickness to understand the joy of health.

There are very many women who suffer as did Mrs. Tipton, who might be cured as she was by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries the drains which weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

"It is with pleasure I recommend Dr. Pierce's medicine," writes Mrs. Nora Tipton, of Cropper (Cropper Station), Shelby Co., Kentucky. "You remember my case was one of female weakness and weak lungs. I had no appetite and would often spit blood; was confined to my bed almost half of the time and could hardly stand on my feet at times for the pains through my whole body and system. My husband had to pay large doctor bills for me, but since I have taken four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, four of 'Favorite Prescription' and three vials of 'Pleasant Pellets' we haven't paid any more doctor bills. It had been seven months since I stopped using Dr. Pierce's medicines and I have been enjoying good health all the time. I can never praise these medicines too highly, for I have received so much benefit. I pray that many who suffer as I did will take Dr. Pierce's medicines. I am sure they will never fail to cure when given a fair trial. Everybody tells me I look better than they ever saw me. I am sure I feel better than I ever did before."

"Favorite Prescription" has the testimony of thousands of women to its complete cure of womanly diseases. Do not accept an unknown and unproved substitute in its place.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a ladies' laxative. No other medicine equals them for gentleness and thoroughness.

NORTHFIELD.

Miserly Woman's Will.

The will of Catharine Foster, the aged recluse who died of starvation at her home near Williamsport, was opened Wednesday. She bequeathes nearly all her property, including a farm of eighty acres, to the Salvation army "to be used for the glory of God" To a nephew, William S. George, she leaves $1, and to Elmer C. Emerick $50 for kindness shown to her. The will contained directions for her funeral, and she requested to be buried "a few rods north east of the home on a knoll where stands a chestnut stump surrounded by a group of saplings, which group is all the monument I require, my body to be incased in a metal casket." As the burial occurred before the will was opened these provisions were not carried out. In addition to $300 found in her clothing Mrs. Foster owned valuable property, some of it being located in Illinois.

We Would Say, "Guess Nit."

A Tennessee squire in performing the marriage ceremony a short time ago, used the following form:

"Wilt thou take her for thy pard, for better or for worse, to have, to hold, to fondly guard till hauled off in a hearse? Wilt thou let her have her way consult her many wishes, make the fire every morning and help her wash the dishes? Wilt thou comfort and support her father and her mother, Aunt Jemima, Uncle John, three sisters and a brother?" As his face grew pale and blank, it was too late to jilt, as through the floor he sank, he said, "I wilt."

Wants Others to Know.

I have used DeWitt's Little Early Risers for constipation and torpid liver and they are all right. I am glad to indorse them for I think when we find a good thing we ought to let others know it," writes Alfred Heinze, Quincy, Ill., They never gripe or distress. Sure, safe pills. C. M. Parrish.

TOLD NOT TO LEAVE

Residents of St. Pierre Informed That There Was No Danger From Mount Pelee.

PLACED TROOPS ON GUARD

A Large Fire Reported as Being Seen in the Direction of Fort de France Tuesday Night Last.

SEARCHING FOR DEAD BODIES

LONDON, 15.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Barbadaos, B. W. I., who visited St Pierre on board the royal mail steamer Solent, has learned from Dr. Artier, who miraculously escaped the disaster, that when the governor of Martinique, Mouttet, and the insular officials had declared that all danger from an eruption of Mont Peloe was past, a cordon of armed soldiers and policemen was placed around the town to prevent the people from leaving. Dr. Artier, however, went to the suburb of Morne Rouge. He was riding back to St. Pierre when the explosion occurred. He turned and fled precipitately across the mountains to Fort de France.

With the exception of the prisoner, who was confined in a dungeon at the time of the explosion, Dr. Artier is really the sole survivor of St. Pierre.

CASTRIES, Island of St. Lucia, May 15.—The signal station here reports that a large fire was seen Tuesday night in the direction of Fort de France, Martinique.

The British steamer Savan, Captain Hunter, arrived here Wednesday morning and reports Mont Pelee to be still in eruption. The trend of the flow from the volcano is to the north.

The search parties which are removing the dead from St. Pierre have seen safes and molten precious metals in stores and dwellings. No one is permitted to penetrate into St. Pierre beyond the street running along the sea front, and a cordon of soldiers has been placed around the town. The St. Pierre cathedral is all down with the exception of one tower, and of the theatre the walls alone are now standing. The convent, which contained 200 girls and thirty-six nuns, has disappeared, as has the college, where seventy boys and twenty-two priests and professors were domiciled.

Many thrilling and hairbreadth escapes from the eruption of Mont Pelee are reported.

NEW YORK, May 15.—The United States auxiliary cruiser Dixie, which has on board almost 3,000 tons of supplies consisting of provisions and clothing for the relief of the people of the Island of Martinique, passed out of quarantine at twelve minutes past 10 o'clock Wednesday night for Fort de France.

It is probable that the Dixie will reach that place next Tuesday. The vessel also carries a number of surgeons and about $5,000 worth of medical supplies.

The Dixie passed out by Sandy Hook to sea at four minutes past 11 o'clock.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Adjutant General Corbin has received a cablegram from San Juan, Porto Rico, saying that the collier Sterling sailed Wednesday with supplies for Martinique.

LONDON, May 15.—The Fort de France correspondent of the Times in a despatch describing the present condition of Mount Pelee says that volcano is still rumbling and that three points on the lower slopes of the mountain which are casting incandescent rays, seem to presage a further calamity.

A. J. Balfour, the government leader in the house of commons, announced in parliament to-day the intention of the government respecting the relief of the survivors of the Martinique disasters.

Negro Preaches in His Sleep.

For many months scientists have been puzzled by the case of Rev. Major Perry, a negro, of Columbia, S. C., who almost nightly after falling asleep announces a text, giving chapter and verse, and proceeds to deliver a well-thought-out sermon. All efforts to waken him while preaching have been futile.

A white man from Fairfield county, who has known Perry all his life, declared that Perry as a child was the slave of a Baptist minister and that the boy showed great interest in religion and never missed a sermon of his master's.

Appeal to Higher Courts.

Although they have lost their case in the Schuylkill county courts the Burkhart Moser heirs will carry it to the supreme court in the hope of recovering valuable coal lands near Tamaqua, now controlled by the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company. In Centre county there are a number of descendants of Moser.

FEED ADULTERATIONS.

Instead of Oats Hulls the Seed Coat of the Coffee Berry is Used.

A little bulletin of interest to persons who buy feed for horses, etc, has been issued by Prof. Armsby, at State College, showing that the inner seed coat of the coffee-berry is used to adulterate bran, and that the stuff is almost useless as a feed for horses and cattle. The feeding value is so low that it is practically valueless, and can not be sold on its own merits.

A sample of bran was submitted to the Experiment Station, a short time since, for examination, with the statement that horses and cattle would not eat it. Chemical analysis showed the presence of 8 per cent. of protein and nearly 36 per cent. of fiber or woody matter, whereas average bran contains 15.5 and 9 per cent. respectively, of these constituents. Particles of yellow, tough, parchmente-like substance were present in large quantity; they proved, upon microscopical examination, to be portions of the inner seed-coat of the coffee-berry. This has recently been put on the market as a cattle-food under the name "cornaline," and contains only 2.5 to 3 per cent. of protein, 5 to 7 per cent. of fat and about 60 per cent of fiber.

Farmers should be on the look-out for this admixture in the concentrated feeds they buy; in its coarser condition its toughness and parchment-like appearance will enable the buyer to discover it in many cases by the unaided eye.

What is Foley's Kidney Cure?

Answer: It is made from a prescription of a leading Chicago physician, and one of the most eminent in the country. The ingredients are the purest that money can buy, and are scientifically combined to get their utmost value. C. M. Parrish.

A Priest Stricken With Smallpox.

Rev. Father Burke, who years ago served the Church of Immaculate Conception at Lock Haven during the time that Rev. Father Rafferty was in Europe, is ill with smallpox in the quarantine hospital, Buffalo, N. Y. The reverend gentleman is pastor of St. Columba's church in that city, and contracted the disease while administering the last rites of the church to Mrs. Rosney, who was ill with the disease in the hospital. A Buffalo paper publishes that on the second day after her arrival at the hospital Mrs. Rosney was told that her end was near. She asked that a priest be summoned to attend her, and when the hospital physicians wanted to know if she wanted any particular clergyman she asked them to send for Father Burke, the pastor of the church at which she was accustomed to worship.

Word was sent to Father Burke, and though he realized that his visit might result in his being stricken with the most loathsome of diseases, aye even in his death, he went cheerfully and at once to the bedside of his afflicted parishioner and administered to her the consolation which the church of which he is a minister, gives whenever possible to her dying children.

Recently rash appeared on the face and person of the priest, and when Dr. Banta was called to attend him Thursday he pronounced the case smallpox and ordered Father Burke's removal to the institution in which the priest had contracted the disease.

—These are house cleaning days. It is also a good time to pay some attention to the back alleys, where disease germs are lurking.

Only a Bee Sting.

William S. Wright, residing at Centre Lawrence township, is a peculiar victim of a bee sting. On Wednesday last while passing the residence of John McGaughey, in Reedville, he was stung by one in the neck, and fearing unpleasant results hastened as fast as possible to town, but before he reached the paved streets he became dizzy and blind. He groped his way along until he reached the office of Dr. Bennett and sight had so far left him that he could not see the door of the office. He acted strangely and for a moment was not able to take in the trouble as Mr. Wright was not able to speak. However, he discovered something serious and injected some morphine in his arm and he rallied for a time. A neighbor came along with a wagon and he was taken in the doctor directing him to go to the hospital. After being seated in the wagon, he again became dizzy and could not sit up. A pillow was secured and he was fixed in the wagon, taken to the hospital and his case had attention. In the evening he was able to be removed to his home. Mr. Wright says that he would rather be bitten by a rattle snake than stung with a bee and his experience of Wednesday would be about right. A bee sting in many cases is poisonous and in other cases is as mild as the pricking of a needle.—Rafteman Journal, Clearfield.

A Revelation.

If you will make inquiry it will be a revelation to you how many succumb to kidney or bladder troubles in one form or another. If the patient is not beyond medical aid, Foley's Kidney Cure will cure. It never disappoints. C. M. Parrish.

Club of Men All Born on May 6.

There is a birthday club in Mechanicsburg, which is unique in that it is composed of seven members, all of whom were born on May 6. The club meets on May 6 every year and each year it is entertained by a different member at dinner. While the rules permit any person in the town to join, at present all the members are men.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

is a food medicine for the baby that is thin and not well nourished and for the mother whose milk does not nourish the baby.

It is equally good for the boy or girl who is thin and pale and not well nourished by their food; also for the anæmic or consumptive adult that is losing flesh and strength.

In fact, for all conditions of wasting, it is the food medicine that will nourish and build up the body and give new life and energy when all other means fail.

Should be taken in summer as well as winter.

50c. and $1.00, all druggists.

—The State of Pennsylvania now has in its possession what is probably the most curious war trophy in existence. It is the football presented to the state Tuesday through Colonel James E. Barnett of the Tenth Pennsylvania Volunteers. The special interest attaching to the football lies in the fact that it was used by the recruits of the Tenth Regiment in a football game played at Diamond Head, Hawaiian islands, on their way to the Philippines. Prince Cupid of the Hawaiian royal house played in the game.

COUNCIL MEETING.

The Finance Committee Has an Interesting Report—Water Street to be Repaired Temporarily.

The borough council met for its semi-monthly session Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the council chamber in the Public building on Howard street. The members present were President Reynolds, and Potter, Garrity, Kirk, Whittaker, Cunningham and Derstine.

Burgess Blanchard reported the collection of $45.00 in fines etc,, during the past month.

Chairman Potter of the Finance committee reported that the boro had overdrawn its account $209.26

Chairman Garrity of the Water committee reported that Spring Creek is in a bad condition from the pumping station to the falls opposite the steam laundry. Ever since the flood it has been filled up with mud etc., which is backing the water back on the water wheel at the Water works. No repairs can be made at the Water works until this is remedied.

The repairs to Water street were discussed at length. Boro Solicitor Fortney read an opinion in regard to the responsibility as to who should build this walk. He was not entirely clear in the matter of the authority for the laying out of this street. He also said that where the walk extended over the stream you could not make a private owner build this part of the walk, it being a public stream. However Mr. Crider owns the land on both sides of the street at certain points which leaves a pretty question to decide. Mr. Fortney wanted further time to examine into the matter.

Mr. Potter moved seconded by Mr. Garrity that Water street from the High street bridge to the Spring, which was damaged by the flood be repaired temporarily pending the decision of Solicitor Fortney. It was so ordered.

Mr. Whittaker than moved seconded by Mr. Kirk that North Water street from the High street bridge to Lamb street be also repaired on the same conditions. Carried.

The Water committee was instructed to clean the mud and moss out of Spring Creek which is said to be backing the water back on the water wheel at the Pumping station.

The lock-up was reported to be in bad condition. Necessary repairs were ordered to be made.

Chairman Potter of the Finance Committee submitted the following report:

The Finance Committee respectfully recommend the following millage: Street 4 mills, Boro 3 mills, Interest 4½ mills. This will give upon the valuation $1,627,615 the following: for street $6510.46; boro $4,882.84; Interest $7324.29. In addition we will receive from licenses $570.00; from Burgess $50.00; from market $80.00 making a total of $19,417.59. Deducting for Collector's expenses $600 leaves a balance of $18,817.59. From the old tax duplicate we will receive $9,000

For expenditures we have made the following estimates: Finance $1200.00; Street $6105.00; Board of Health $125.00. Police $1300; Fire department $1500 interest $4500; State Tax $450.00; Treasurer $305.00. This makes a total of $15,485.00. Add $3000 for the sinking fund makes a total of $18,485.00

The report of the Finance committee was accepted and adopted.

The following bills were approved and ordered paid:

A. Allison. pipes and fittings	$ 20.22
Water Pay Roll	89 25
Police Pay Roll	55.28
Street pay Roll	55.33
H. B. Pontius. 1 month as clerk. etc	12.50
R. B. Taylor. coal for W. W.	72.85
	$295.43

Death of William A. Boal.

Last Saturday evening death laid its finger upon William A. Boal of Centre Hall, touched his eyelids down and he slept. A large circle of acquaintances, relatives and friends, mourn his departure to that bourne from which no traveler returns. He was loved by them all, for his life had been so correct, that the finger of reproach never was pointed at him. The allotted years of life are three score and ten, but William Boal did not reach it for he was born Sept. 13, 1835, making his age 66 years 8 months and 4 days. A wife and five daughters survive him. He is a brother of Geo. Boal, postmaster of Centre Hall, Shannon Boal, of the same place, Mrs. Dr. Orlady of Crawford Co., is a sister. He has been a life long member of the Presbyterian church a prominent member of the Masons and Grange. The funeral which was in charge of the Free Masons took place Tuesday afternoon.

An Exciting Runaway.

Joseph L. Runkle, the plumber, had a narrow escape from death in a runaway accident Wednesday Mr. Runkle was driving across the Diamond when his horse frightened at the barking of a dog and ran away. Mr. Runkle tried to keep the horse in the middle of the street but at the intersection of Howard and Allegheny streets the animal veered to the right and struck a telephone pole in front of the residence of G. Murray Andrews.

The horse fell down and Runkle was thrown out onto the brick crossing. Bystanders picked Runkle up in an unconscious condition and carried him to the residence of S. A. Bell where medical attendance was summoned. It was found that a deep gash was cut in the back of the head and that he was suffering from the concussion incident to his fall. Fortunately however it is believed that his injuries are not of a serious character.

The horse escaped without serious injury but the wagon is considerably damaged.

Welsh Bros.' Aggregation Came to Town Saturday.

After considerable booming the Welsh Bros.' circus arrived in Bellefonte Saturday morning by way of the Pennsylvania railroad.

The show reached town from Lock Haven, where they played to big business. The show this year is a big pretentious concern, and has all new features in the various departments.

Shortly after 11 o'clock Saturday morning the big street parade left the grounds and passed through the principal streets of Bellefonte.

Welsh Brothers have won their fame as circus managers by their original methods and their absolute disregard of expense when the pleasure and entertainment of their patrons is in question, and their resplendent street parade is a striking illustration of what brains, energy and capital can accomplish in the field of professional advertisement.

The parade was received with much enthusiasm by the many spectators that assembled to witness it.

Among the star features and one that causes much comment is the wonderful equine act presented by Mr. John White. Three features of this great act are particularly notable: the large number of horses, the greatest company of equines ever trained in this way, and the immense amount of paraphernalia used in the production. Mr. White handles sixty horses at one time. The act must be seen to be appreciated.

The other prominent features include Frederic Welcome and Pearl Forepaugh in mid-air flights; the great Marinella in muscular exercises; the La Rue troupe of star acrobats; Miss Mamie Forepaugh with her cake walking horses; the Kitamura Royal Imperial Japanese troupe; Miss Millie Zanta; marvelous Albert Sylvester; George Colba, Harry F. West; Grimaldi Brown; Robby De Rue, John K. Trewetz and Del Kano. In connection with these numerous high class acrobatic, aerial, gymnic and other aerial specialists appear. It is a great show from the introductory pageant to the final number.

Death of John W. Cooke.

John W. Cooke, formerly of this place, but late of Philadelphia, died at his home in that city, No. 2015 North Twenty-second street, Friday evening, May 16, from a complication of diseases. He was 62 years of age, and was at one time a prominent business man of this place.
